From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The month of February is dedicated to increasing our devotion to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, and to imitating their practice of everyday holiness. May the Holy Family help us each day to strive to be Saints in the service of our good Lord Jesus and His Kingdom! This coming Wednesday is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. I encourage all of our parishioners to attend Holy Mass on Ash Wednesday. Please see elsewhere in this bulletin for the full schedule of Holy Masses. Plan now to begin Lent with Our Lord at Holy Mass! With the beginning of Lent our attention also turns to penances or sacrifices. Let us be determined in our efforts to make time for Jesus in prayer and be bold in our acts of Charity! First, I encourage all of us to pick some practices to give up or to do. The usual practices, like giving up dessert, candy, pop or television can be good. However, asking for the grace from our good Lord to change a bad habit in our relationship with God and others may be much better. We can also 'think outside of the box' in other ways? A penance does not always have to be something we forgo or give up. It could also be something we add to our daily life. We could add such things as: doing more acts of kindness in word or deed for one's spouse, children, or siblings; choosing to forgive and let go of a grudge; ask for forgiveness from someone; visit relatives in the nursing home; call your parents more often; pray for patience and try to practice it more and more; pray for those who annoy you; thank God for His blessings each day; pray more and with greater love for God – in the morning, afternoon and night; and I think the list could go on. Here are a few more ideas that would bear great fruit: attend daily Holy Mass; monthly confession; daily family Rosary; Chaplet of Mercy; Stations of the Cross and meditation on our Lord's sorrows and Passion; spending time with Jesus in adoration of the Eucharist; praying the Liturgy of the Hours; praying with Sacred Scripture; 15-30 minutes of quiet prayer talking with Jesus and listening to Him in your home; a prayerful walk; talking with a spiritual director; and reading a good spiritual book - I recommend the Diary of St. Faustina, the autobiography of St. Therese called Story of a Soul, or the Imitation of Christ by Thomas a Kempis.

Second, for information on the practice of penance, here is what our Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches us:

"The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in many and various ways. Scripture and the Fathers insist above all on three forms, fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others. Alongside the radical purification brought about by Baptism or martyrdom they cite as means of obtaining forgiveness of sins: effort at reconciliation with one's neighbor, tears of repentance, concern for the salvation of one's neighbor, the intercession of the saints, and the practice of charity 'which covers a multitude of sins.' Conversion is accomplished in daily life by gestures of reconciliation, concern for the poor, the exercise and defense of justice and right, by the admission of faults to one's brethren, fraternal correction, revision of life, examination of conscience, spiritual direction, acceptance of suffering, endurance of persecution for the sake of righteousness. Taking up one's cross each day and following Jesus is the surest way of penance."

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"There is more joy in Heaven over a converted sinner than over a righteous person standing firm. A leader in battle has more love for a soldier who returns after fleeing and who valiantly pursues the enemy, than for one who never turned back but who never acted valiantly either. A farmer has greater love for land which bears fruitfully, after he has cleared it of thorns, than for land which never had thorns but which never yielded a fruitful harvest." St. Pope Gregory the Great

"The Sun of our lives is the Eucharist." St. Luigi Guanella

"A Saint is not someone who never sins, but one who sins less and less frequently and gets up more and more quickly." St. Bernard of Clairvaux

"Then, overcome by joy, I cried, 'Jesus, my Love. At last I have found my vocation. My vocation is Love. In the heart of the Church, my mother, I will be Love, and then I will be all things.' St. Thérèse de Lisieux

"Do not be afraid, then, when Love makes demands. Do not be afraid when Love requires sacrifice." St. Pope John Paul II

"God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." St. Augustine
"Mihi mori lucrum - For me to die is a gain. To die, murdered by the haters of Jesus Christ, would be my gain. All my fervent desires have always been to die in a hospital as a poor man, or on the scaffold as a martyr, murdered by enemies because of the most holy Religion that we profess and preach. I should like to seal with my blood the Virtues and Truths which I have preached and taught." St. Anthony Mary Claret

A TIME OF RENEWAL: Daily Reflections for the Lenten Season

Mother Mary Francis, abbess of a Poor Clare Monastery for over forty years, left an enduring legacy in her writings and in the conferences she gave to her spiritual daughters. In this work, she presents beautiful meditations on the liturgical season of Lent, revealing the treasures of the liturgy to Christians in all walks of life. Her insight into Holy Scripture and her poet's heart engendered reflections that illuminate the daily Mass readings. ## The Grace Within

"Our Lord Jesus Christ, born true man without ever ceasing to be true God, began in His person a new creation and by the manner of His birth gave man a spiritual origin. What mind can grasp this mystery, what tongue can fittingly recount this gift of Love? Guilt becomes innocence, old becomes new, strangers are adopted and outsiders are made heirs. Rouse yourself, man, and recognize the dignity of your nature. Remember that you were made in God's Image; though corrupted in Adam, that image has been restored in Christ. Use creatures as they should be used: the earth, the sea, the sky, the air, the springs and the rivers. Give praise and glory to their Creator for all that you find beautiful and wonderful in them. See with your bodily eyes the light that shines on earth, but embrace with your whole soul and all your affections the true Light which enlightens every man who comes into this world. Speaking of this Light the prophet said: Draw close to Him and let His Light shine upon you and your face will not blush with shame. If we are indeed the temple of God and if the Spirit of God lives in us, then what every believer has within himself is greater than what he admires in the skies. Our words and exhortations are not intended to make you disdain God's works or think there is anything contrary to your Faith in creation, for the good God has Himself made all things good. What we do ask is that you use reasonably and with moderation all the marvelous creatures which adorn this work; as the Apostle says: The things that are seen are transient but the things that are unseen are eternal. For we are born in the present only to be reborn in the future. Our attachment, therefore, should not be to the transitory; instead, we must be intent upon the eternal. Let us think of how Divine Grace has transformed our earthly natures so that we may contemplate more closely our heavenly Hope. We hear the Apostle say: You are dead and your life is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ your Life appears, then you will also appear in glory with Him, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen." (From a sermon by Pope St. Leo the Great)

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes." Second Vatican Council, Church in the Modern World, #51

"Once that living love is destroyed by contraception, abortion follows easily... And abortion, which often follows from contraception, brings a people to be spiritually poor, and that is the worst poverty and the most difficult to overcome." St. Teresa of Calcutta

"The Gospel of Life is for the whole of human society. To be actively pro-life is to contribute to the renewal of society through the promotion of the common good." St. John Paul II

"If the bringing of children into the world is today an economic burden, it is because the social system is inadequate; and not because God's law is wrong. Therefore the State should remove the causes of that burden. The human must not be limited and controlled to fit the economic, but the economic must be expanded to fit the human."

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) nourishment in the Eucharist, for in it is made present the sacrifice of Christ which has reconciled us with God. Through the Eucharist those who live from the life of Christ are fed and strengthened. 'It is a remedy to free us from our daily faults and to preserve us from mortal sins.' Reading Sacred Scripture, praying the Liturgy of the Hours and the Our Father - every sincere act of worship or devotion revives the spirit of conversion and repentance within us and contributes to the forgiveness of our sins. The seasons and days of penance in the course of the liturgical year (Lent, and each Friday in memory of the death of the Lord) are intense moments of the Church's penitential practice. These times are particularly appropriate for spiritual exercises, penitential liturgies, pilgrimages as signs of penance, voluntary self-denial such as fasting and almsgiving, and fraternal sharing (charitable and missionary works). The process of conversion and repentance was described by Jesus in the parable of the prodigal son, the center of which is the merciful father: The fascination of illusory freedom, the abandonment of the father's house; the extreme misery in which the son finds himself after squandering his fortune; his deep humiliation at finding himself obliged to feed swine, and still worse, at wanting to feed on the husks the pigs ate; his reflection on all he has lost; his repentance and decision to declare himself guilty before his father; the journey back; the father's generous welcome; the father's joy - all these are characteristic of the process of conversion. The beautiful robe, the ring, and the festive banquet are symbols of that new life - pure worthy, and joyful - of anyone who returns to God and to the bosom of his family, which is the Church. Only the heart of Christ Who knows the depths of his Father's love could reveal to us the abyss of his mercy in so simple and beautiful a way." (CCC 1434-1439)

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph and our patrons, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God bless you, your families and our parishes! In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

Partners in Compassion: This year our parishes will participate in a Lenten collection to support the work of Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries. Imagine a nun going undercover, walking the streets at night rescuing women and children from the world of human trafficking. This is but one of the missions of the Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries in the Philippines and California—rescuing victims of trafficking and giving them hope for a better future through educational assistance to survivors and to the rural poor of the Philippines. The missionaries, also known as "Pink Sisters," due to the color of their habits, provide help in the form of:

- Temporary shelter
- Basic health care, food, and nutrition
- Maternity and Medical Assistance
- Psychological Therapy and Counseling
- Recreational Activities
- Spiritual Formation
- Educational assistance
- Livelihood & skills training: baking, sewing, cooking & catering, candle-making, etc.
- Childcare for young mothers with children as they rehabilitate.

You can help by picking up a collection bottle available beginning on Ash Wednesday at St. Paul or St. Michael, filling it with change you collect during Lent (or write a check to the church, noting "Partners in Compassion" on the memo line), and returning the filled bottle at Easter-time.

If you would like to find out more about Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries and the work they do, visit their website at: <https://www.mqhm.org/> "There are so many young girls who are calling us for help, but there is nowhere for them to go. At the center, we give them unlimited love and unlimited help." - MQHM Sister Irene Baquiran

Please prayerfully consider participating in this collection to help rescue God's children from trafficking and poverty!
