From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

First, thank you to our St. Patrick Ham Dinner committee for the Church of St. Paul for diligently working to reschedule our Ham Dinner fundraiser to Sunday, April 19. I encourage all to rally together as we face the adversity in the weather of this weekend – that we may have a good outcome in a successful Ham Dinner next month! The month of March is dedicated to devotion to St. Joseph. Let us ask St. Joseph to defend and help us on our path toward Heaven and to grant us a love for Jesus and Mary like he has in his heart! This Sunday we celebrate the 4th Sunday of Lent. On this Laetare Sunday of March, I share with you a reflection on St. Joseph. I encourage you to reflect over this message a few times this week:

“The promises of the Old Testament were realized in Jesus by means of St. Joseph: The Lord has put His faithful servant in charge of His household. (Entrance Antiphon: Luke 12:42) The household referred to in Entrance Antiphon for the Solemnity of St. Joseph is none other than the Holy Family of Nazareth. God entrusted this treasure to St. Joseph, His faithful servant, who dedicated his entire life to their care. The Lord’s household also can be understood as the Church, which likewise looks to Saint Joseph as a guardian and patron... With the Incarnation, the ‘promises’ and ‘figures’ of the Old Testament become reality: places, persons, events and rites interrelate according to precise divine commands communicated by Angels and received by creatures who are particularly sensitive to the voice of God. Mary is the Lord’s humble servant, prepared from eternity for the task of being the Mother of God. Joseph is the one... who has the responsibility of looking after the Son of God’s ‘ordained’ entry into the world in accordance with divine dispositions and human laws. All of the so-called ‘private’ or ‘hidden’ life of Jesus is entrusted to Joseph’s guardianship. (John Paul II, Apostolic Exhortation, Redemptoris Custos, 15 August 1989, 8)

St. Joseph is the Patriarch of the New Testament. Here was an ordinary man to whom God granted extraordinary Graces. St. Joseph was to fulfill a most singular mission in the salvific design of God. He experienced indescribable joys along with the trials of doubt and suffering. We recall his perplexity at the mystery of Mary’s Conception (of Jesus), at the extreme of material poverty in Bethlehem, at the prophecies of Simeon in the Temple, at the hurried flight into Egypt, at the difficulties of having to live in a foreign land, at the return from Egypt and the threat posed by Archelaus. St. Joseph proved himself always faithful to the Will of God. He showed himself always ready to set aside his own human plans and considerations.

The explanation for this remarkable fidelity is that Jesus and Mary were at the center of St. Joseph’s life. Joseph’s self-giving is an interweaving of faithful love, loving Faith and confident Hope. His feast is thus a good opportunity for us to renew our commitment to the Christian calling God has given each of us.

When you sincerely desire to live by Faith, Hope and Love, the renewal of your commitment is not a matter of picking up again some thing neglected. When there really is Faith, Hope and Love, renewal means staying in God’s hands, despite our personal faults, mistakes and defects. It is a confirmation of our faithfulness. Renewing our commitment means renewing our fidelity to what (continued on page 3)

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“Knowing by experience St. Joseph’s astonishing influence with God, I would wish to persuade everyone to honor him with particular devotion. I have always seen those who honored him in a special manner make progress in virtue, for this heavenly protector favors in a striking manner the spiritual advancement of souls who commend themselves to him.” St. Theresa of Avila

“He is Holy Joseph, because according to the opinion of a great number of doctors, he, as well as St. John Baptist, was sanctified even before he was born. He is Holy Joseph, because his office, of being spouse and protector of Mary, specially demanded sanctity. He is Holy Joseph, because no other Saint but he lived in such and so long intimacy and familiarity with the source of all holiness, Jesus, God incarnate, and Mary, the holiest of creatures.” St. John Henry Newman

“Saint Joseph. One cannot love Jesus and Mary without loving the Holy Patriarch.” St. Josemaria Escriva

“Let us love Jesus above all, let us love Mary as our mother; but then, how could we keep from loving Joseph, who was so intimately united to both Jesus and Mary? And how can we honor him better than by imitating his virtues? Now, what else did he do in all his life but contemplate, study, and adore Jesus, even in the midst of his daily labors? Behold, therefore, our model.” St. Madeleine Sophie Barat

“A servant of Mary will have a tender devotion to St. Joseph, and by his pious homage of respect and love, will endeavor to merit the protection of this great saint.” Blessed William Joseph Chaminade

The Loving Heart of Mary:

“Whenever you feel guilty, even if it is because you have consciously committed a sin, a serious sin, something you have kept doing many, many times, never let the devil deceive you by allowing him to discourage you. Whenever you feel guilty, offer all your guilt to the Immaculata, without analyzing it or examining it, as something that belongs to her...”

My beloved, may every fall, even if it is serious and habitual sin, always become for us a small step toward a higher degree of perfection. In fact, the only reason why the Immaculata permits us to fall is to cure us from our self-conceit, from our pride, to make us humble and thus make us docile to the Divine Graces. The devil, instead, tries to inject in us discouragement and internal depression in those circumstances, which is, in fact, nothing else than our pride surfacing again. If we knew the depth of our poverty, we would not be at all surprised by our falls, but rather astonished, and we would thank God, after sinning, for not allowing us to fall even deeper and still more frequently.” St. Maximilian Kolbe

(From Father Kasel - from page 1) God wants of us: it means expressing our love in deeds. (J. Escriva, Christ is Passing By, 43)

We ask the Holy Patriarch to help us to fulfill the Will of God in everything. We pray that he will show us how to live out our commitments joyfully and without reservations. Our example will enlighten many others as to the true pathway to Heaven.

The fidelity of the Holy Patriarch to his vocation: Come, good and faithful servant! Share the joy of your Lord! (Communion Antiphon for Solemnity of St. Joseph: Matt. 25:21) St. Joseph would have heard these words of our Communion Antiphon upon his arrival in Heaven. One day the Lord will say these blessed words to each one of us if we persevere in our Christian vocation. This will happen despite our many stumbles and falls because we shall have had the humility and the courage to begin again.

Fidelity to the Lord is what gives meaning to our lives, no matter what our age or personal circumstances. We know that our earthly happiness depends upon our Faith. St. Joseph had his share of difficulties, but he always relied upon the help of God. He refused to deviate from his vocation. What else was his life if not a total dedication to the service for which he had been called? Husband to Our Lady, legal father to Jesus... He devoted his life to the attention he paid them, dedicated to fulfilling his vocation - the mission to which he had been called. As a dedicated man is one who does not belong to himself, Joseph ceased to be concerned for himself from the moment when, enlightened by an angel in that first dream, he fully accepted God's designs for him. Receiving Mary as his spouse he began to live for those who had been placed in his care. God had entrusted him with His family, and Joseph did not disappoint Him. God sought support in him, and he stood firm in every instance. (F. Suarez, Joseph of Nazareth, pp. 215-216) God counts on us for many great things. We cannot let Him down. Let us tell the Lord that we want to be unswervingly loyal to what He wants of us just as St. Joseph was in his life. We should examine ourselves as to how we can be more faithful in our personal conduct, our apostolate and our profession work.

Our perseverance: Father, with unselfish Love St. Joseph cared for Your Son, born of the Virgin Mary. May we also serve You at Your altar with pure hearts. (Prayer over the Gifts)

(This) is a good time for us to reflect on the teaching of St. Thomas concerning Divine Vocation: To those whom God calls for His work, God provides the necessary preparation and graces, so that they will be the ideal instruments for that work. (St. Thomas, Summa Theologiae, 3, q 27, a 4, c) God's fidelity is made manifest in an infinite variety of ways to help us fulfill our commitments. St. Joseph responded immediately to the countless Graces which he received from God.

We ought often to reflect in our prayer on the certainty that the Lord will never let us down. He awaits our mature response, whether it be in youth, in adulthood, in old age, in good times (continued on page 4)

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

It is possible that we may not feel God's presence at times, perhaps for a lengthy period. We may not feel drawn to God because we are full of ourselves. In this kind of situation fidelity to God requires interior recollection. Fidelity requires personal effort to overcome egoism and to begin again a life of prayer.

God wants us to be full of love, alert, brimming over with initiatives. The heart of the holy Patriarch was always alive with joy, even in the most difficult of trials. We ought to ensure that our journey to God is as new and original as love itself. Today we ask St. Joseph to give us a share in his youthful spirit. We ask this of him for the sake of those around us who might find thereby a road to Jesus." (From: In Conversation with God, by Francis Fernandez)

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother and Queen of all hearts, St. Joseph, St. Michael, and St. Paul may we all grow in our devotion to St. Joseph!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

PRO-LIFE QUOTE: "Look at the mothers who truly love their children — how many sacrifices they make for them. They are ready for everything, even to give their own blood so that their babies grow up good, healthy and strong." St. Gianna Molla, wife and mother, b.1922 – d.1962

Catholic Services Appeal 2026 - Giving is Faith in Action!

Your continued generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. The way the Lord gave of Himself for us is a great reminder that we are united as one Church and that when we come together and support our ministries we can do so much good. Each of us has benefited from our ministries. To make your gift today, visit Love.ArchSPM.org

Go To Joseph! "Go, then to Joseph, and do all that he shall say to you; Go to Joseph, and obey him as Jesus and Mary obeyed him; Go to Joseph, and speak to him as they spoke to him; Go to Joseph, and consult him as they consulted him; Go to Joseph, and honor him as they honored him; Go to Joseph, and be grateful to him as they were grateful to him; Go to Joseph, and love him, as they love him still." St Alphonsus Liguori

Partners in Compassion: This year our parishes will participate in a Lenten collection to support the work of Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries. Imagine a nun going undercover, walking the streets at night rescuing women and children from the world of human trafficking. This is but one of the missions of the Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries in the Philippines and California—rescuing victims of trafficking and giving them hope for a better future through educational assistance to survivors and to the rural poor of the Philippines. The missionaries, also known as "Pink Sisters," due to the color of their habits, provide help in the form of: Temporary shelter, Basic health care, food, and nutrition, Maternity and Medical Assistance, Psychological Therapy and Counseling, Recreational Activities, Spiritual Formation, Educational assistance, Livelihood & skills training: baking, sewing, cooking & catering, candle-making, etc., and Childcare for young mothers with children as they rehabilitate. You can help by filling the bottles with change you collect during Lent (or write a check to the church, noting "Partners in Compassion" on the memo line), and returning the filled bottle at Eastertide. If you would like to find out more about Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries and the work they do, visit their website at: <https://www.mqhm.org/> "There are so many young girls who are calling us for help, but there is nowhere for them to go. At the center, we give them unlimited love and unlimited help." -MQHM Sister Irene Baquiran Please prayerfully consider participating in this collection to help rescue God's children from trafficking and poverty!
