St. Paul &

St. Michael

From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

First, I encourage all our parishioners to participate in the Stations of the Cross held each Tuesday of Lent at the Church of St. Paul at 5:30pm and each Friday the Church of St. Michael at 7:30pm.

Second, I want to remind you that due to the blizzard last Sunday, we rescheduled the St. Patrick's Ham Dinner hosted by the Church of St. Paul to Sunday, April 19. We look forward to working together to have a great event and fundraiser!

Third, if you have not had a chance to attend one of the St. Michael Men's Club Fish Fries I encourage you to do so!

This coming Wednesday is the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. At the moment of the Annunciation, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity took to Himself our human nature. The meaning of this Solemnity is part of the very heart of our Catholic Faith. I encourage you, if you are able, to attend Holy Mass this day!

Here is what our Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us about this Dogma of our Faith:

484 The Annunciation to Mary inaugurates "the fullness of time", the time of the fulfillment of God's promises and preparations. Mary was invited to conceive Him in whom the "whole fullness of Deity" would dwell "bodily". The Divine response to her question, "How can this be, since I know not man?", was given by the power of the Spirit: "The Holy Spirit will come upon you."

485 The mission of the Holy Spirit is always conjoined and ordered to that of the Son. The Holy Spirit, "the Lord, the giver of Life", is sent to sanctify the womb of the Virgin Mary and divinely fecundate it, causing her to conceive the eternal Son of the Father in a humanity drawn from her own.

486 The Father's only Son, conceived as man in the womb of the Virgin Mary, is "Christ", that is to say, anointed by the Holy Spirit, from the beginning of His human existence, though the manifestation of this fact takes place only progressively: to the shepherds, to the magi, to John the Baptist, to the disciples. Thus the whole life of Jesus Christ will make manifest "how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power."

487 What the Catholic Faith believes about Mary is based on what it believes about Christ, and what it teaches about Mary illumines in turn its Faith in Christ.

488 "God sent forth His Son", but to prepare a body for Him, He wanted the free co-operation of a creature. For this, from all eternity God chose for the Mother of His Son a daughter of Israel, a young Jewish woman of Nazareth in Galilee, "a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary":

The Father of mercies willed that the Incarnation should be preceded by assent on the part of the predestined mother, so that just as a woman had a share in the coming of death, so also should a woman contribute to the coming of life.

489 Throughout the Old Covenant the mission of many holy women prepared for that of Mary. At the very beginning there was Eve; despite her disobedience, she receives the promise of a posterity that will be victorious over the evil one, as well as the promise that she will be the mother of all the living. By virtue of this promise, Sarah conceives a son in spite of her old age. Against all (continued on page 3)

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"Listen, and let it penetrate your heart, my dear little son; do not be troubled or weighted down with grief. Do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety or pain. Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle? In the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need?" Our Lady of Guadalupe to St. Juan Diego
"Are you suffering a great deal? Don't lose heart. I will never forsake you. My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God." Our Lady of Fatima to the shepherd children
"Mary has the authority over the angels and the blessed in Heaven. As a reward for her great humility, God gave her the power and mission of assigning to saints the thrones made vacant by the apostate angels who fell away through pride. Such is the will of the almighty God who exalts the humble, that the powers of Heaven, earth, and hell, willingly or unwillingly, must obey the commands of the humble Virgin Mary. For God has made her queen of Heaven and earth, leader of his armies, keeper of his treasure, dispenser of his graces, mediatrix on behalf of men, destroyer of his enemies, and faithful associate in his great works and triumphs." St. Louis Marie de Montfort
"Mary is more blessed because she embraces faith in Christ than because she conceives the flesh of Christ." St. Augustine
"Has anyone ever come away from her troubled or saddened or ignorant of the heavenly mysteries? Who has not returned to everyday life gladdened and joyful because his request had been granted by the Mother of God?" St. Amadeus of Lausanne
"Let us run to Mary, and, as her little children, cast ourselves into her arms with a perfect confidence." St. Francis de Sales
"Mary, give me your Heart: so beautiful, so pure, so immaculate; your Heart so full of love and humility that I may be able to receive Jesus in the Bread of Life and love Him as you love Him and serve Him in the distressing guise of the poor." St. Teresa of Calcutta

STATIONS OF THE CROSS Each Friday of Lent at 7:30pm

The Glory of Saint Joseph: "There is a general rule concerning all special Graces granted to any human being. Whenever the Divine Favor chooses someone to receive a special Grace, or to accept a lofty vocation, God adorns the person chosen with all the gifts of the Spirit needed to fulfill the task at hand.

This general rule is especially verified in the case of Saint Joseph, the foster-father of our Lord and the husband of the Queen of our world, enthroned above the Angels. He was chosen by the Eternal Father as the trustworthy guardian and protector of His greatest Treasures, namely, His Divine Son and Mary, Joseph's wife. He carried out this vocation with complete fidelity until at last God called him, saying: Good and faithful servant enter into the joy of your Lord.

What then is Joseph's position in the whole Church of Christ? Is he not a man chosen and set apart? Through him and, yes, under him, Christ was fittingly and honorably introduced into the world. Holy Church in its entirety is indebted to the Virgin Mother because through her it was judged worthy to receive Christ. But after her we undoubtedly owe special gratitude and reverence to Saint Joseph.

In him the Old Testament finds its fitting close. He brought the noble line of patriarchs and prophets to its promised fulfillment. What the Divine Goodness had offered as a promise to them, he held in his arms. Obviously, Christ does not now deny to Joseph that intimacy, reverence and very high honor which He gave him on earth, as a son to His father. Rather we must say that in Heaven Christ completes and perfects all that He gave at Nazareth.

Now we can see how the last summoning words of the Lord appropriately apply to Saint Joseph: Enter into the joy of your Lord. In fact, although the joy of Eternal Happiness enters into the soul of a man, the Lord preferred to say to Joseph: Enter into joy. His intention was that the words should have a hidden spiritual meaning for us. They convey not only that this holy man possesses an inward joy, but also that it surrounds him and engulfs him like an infinite abyss.

Remember us, Saint Joseph, and plead for us to your Foster-Child. Ask your most holy bride, the Virgin Mary, to look kindly upon us, since she is the Mother of Him who with the Father and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns eternally. Amen." (From a sermon by Saint Bernadine of Siena)

40 Days for Life Campaign: All parishioners are invited to join Fr. Kasel to pray for an end to abortion at the Rochester Planned Parenthood (1212 7th St. NW, Rochester) on Sunday, March 29, at 2:00pm. Plan now to give witness to honor and protect the gift of Life!

(From Father Kasel - from page 1) human expectation God chooses those who were considered powerless and weak to show forth his faithfulness to his promises: Hannah, the mother of Samuel; Deborah; Ruth; Judith and Esther; and many other women. Mary "stands out among the poor and humble of the Lord, who confidently hope for and receive salvation from him. After a long period of waiting the times are fulfilled in her, the exalted Daughter of Sion, and the new plan of salvation is established."

490 To become the mother of the Savior, Mary "was enriched by God with gifts appropriate to such a role." The (Arch)angel Gabriel at the moment of the annunciation salutes her as "Full of Grace". In fact, in order for Mary to be able to give the free assent of her Faith to the announcement of her vocation, it was necessary that she be wholly borne by God's Grace.

491 Through the centuries the Church has become ever more aware that Mary, "Full of Grace" through God, was redeemed from the moment of her Conception. That is what the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception confesses, as Pope Pius IX proclaimed in 1854: The most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her Conception, by a singular Grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin.

492 The "splendor of an entirely unique holiness" by which Mary is "enriched from the first instant of her Conception" comes wholly from Christ: she is "redeemed, in a more exalted fashion, by reason of the merits of her Son". The Father blessed Mary more than any other created person "in Christ with every Spiritual Blessing in the heavenly places" and chose her "in Christ before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless before Him in love".

493 The Fathers of the Eastern tradition call the Mother of God "the All-Holy" (Panagia), and celebrate her as "free from any stain of sin, as though fashioned by the Holy Spirit and formed as a new creature". By the Grace of God Mary remained free of every personal sin her whole life long.

494 At the announcement that she would give birth to "the Son of the Most High" without knowing man, by the power of the Holy Spirit, Mary responded with the obedience of Faith, certain that "with God nothing will be impossible": "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be [done] to me according to your word." NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 3) Thus, giving her consent to God's Word, Mary becomes the Mother of Jesus. Espousing the Divine Will for salvation wholeheartedly, without a single sin to restrain her, she gave herself entirely to the person and to the work of her Son; she did so in order to serve the mystery of redemption with Him and dependent on Him, by God's Grace: As St. Irenaeus says, "Being obedient she became the cause of salvation for herself and for the whole human race." Hence not a few of the early Fathers gladly assert...: "The knot of Eve's disobedience was untied by Mary's obedience: what the virgin Eve bound through her disbelief, Mary loosened by her Faith." Comparing her with Eve, they call Mary "the Mother of the living" and frequently claim: "Death through Eve, Life through Mary."

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may the fire of the Holy Spirit grant us true devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and renew within us a profound love for God and His Divine Will!
In Christ through Mary, Fr. Kasel

Prayer to St. Joseph: O, St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God. I place in you all my interests and desires. O, St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers. Oh, St. Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you, and Jesus asleep in your arms; I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls - pray for me, that I may have a share in your holy death. Pray for all who will die this day and night. Amen.

Partners in Compassion: This year our parishes will participate in a Lenten collection to support the work of Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries. Imagine a nun going undercover, walking the streets at night rescuing women and children from the world of human trafficking. This is but one of the missions of the Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries in the Philippines and California—rescuing victims of trafficking and giving them hope for a better future through educational assistance to survivors and to the rural poor of the Philippines.

You can help by filling the bottles with change you collect during Lent (or write a check to the church, noting "Partners in Compassion" on the memo line), and returning the filled bottle at Eastertime.

If you would like to find out more about Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries and the work they do, visit their website at: <https://www.mqhm.org/> "There are so many young girls who are calling us for help, but there is nowhere for them to go. At the center, we give them unlimited love and unlimited help." -MQHM Sister Irene Baquiran

Please prayerfully consider participating in this collection to help rescue God's children from trafficking and poverty!

Holy Land Appeal: Friday, April 3, 2026: Good Friday is the annual Holy Land collection. Please help support Catholics in the Holy Land, which also includes Damascus. Funds directly support efforts to maintain sacred shrines, parishes, faith formation programs, Catholic schools, and basic humanitarian aid. Thank you for your generous assistance to your brothers and sisters in the Holy Land. God bless you!

Catholic Services Appeal 2026 - Giving is Faith in Action! Your continued generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. The way the Lord gave of Himself for us is a great reminder that we are united as one Church and that when we come together and support our ministries we can do so much good.
