From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

First, I encourage all our parishioners to participate in the Stations of the Cross held each Tuesday of Lent at the Church of St. Paul at 5:30pm and each Friday at the Church of St. Michael at 7:30pm.

The month of March is dedicated to devotion to St. Joseph. Let us ask St. Joseph to defend and help us on our path toward Heaven and to grant us a love for Jesus and Mary like he has in his heart!

This Sunday I share with you a reflection on St. Joseph, the Spouse of the Virgin Mary and Foster Father of our Lord Jesus from Fr. John Hardon, S.J. :

“There are many good reasons why St. Joseph should be the special heavenly patron of dedicated souls - in the religious life, in the priesthood, and among the laity. But as the Church teaches, he is especially to be venerated and his patronage invoked because he was the guardian of the Virgin Mary and the foster-father of Jesus.

The dignity of the Mother of God is so sublime that nothing created can rank above it. But as Joseph was united to the Blessed Virgin by the ties of marriage, we may believe that he approached nearer than anyone else to the eminent dignity by which the Mother of God surpasses all human persons in holiness. Marriage is the most intimate of all unions, which from its essence confers a sharing of gifts between those joined together in wedlock. Thus, in giving Joseph the Blessed Virgin as his spouse, God appointed him to be not only the witness of her virginity, the protector of her honor, but also, because they were truly married, a sharer in her exalted sanctity.

Joseph shines above all mankind by the august privilege of his vocation as the foster-father of the Son of God and, therefore, the diligent protector of Christ.

From this two-fold dignity flows the obligation which nature lays on the heads of families, so that Joseph became the administrator and legal defender of the Holy Family. He set himself to defend with a mighty love and a daily concern his spouse and the Divine Infant. Regularly by his work he earned what was necessary for the one and the other for nourishment and clothing. He guarded the Child from death when threatened by Herod's jealousy, and found for him a refuge in Egypt. In the miseries of the journey and in the bitterness of exile, he was ever the companion, the helper, and the upholder of Jesus and His Virgin Mother.

We may confidently say that the Holy Family which Joseph ruled with the authority of a father contained within itself the first beginnings of the Church. So that, even as Mary is the Mother of the Church because she is the Mother of Christ, so Joseph is the Protector of Holy Church because he was the

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

Universal Prayer for Holiness – attributed to Pope Clement XI (b. 1649 - d. 1721)

I believe, O Lord, but may I believe more firmly; I hope, but may I hope more securely; I love, but may I love more ardently; I sorrow, but may I sorrow more deeply.

I adore You as my first beginning; I long for You as my last end; I praise You as my constant benefactor; I invoke You as my gracious defender.

By Your Wisdom direct me, by Your righteousness restrain me, by Your clemency console me, by Your Power protect me.

I offer You, Lord, my thoughts as toward You, my words, as about You, my deeds, as following You, my trials, as for Your sake.

I will whatever You Will, I will it because You Will, I will it in the way You Will, I will it so long as You Will.

I pray, Lord, enlighten my Understanding, inflame my will, cleanse my heart, sanctify my soul.

May I weep for sins past, repel temptations to come, correct evil leanings, nurture fit virtues.

Give me, good God, Love for You, hatred for myself, zeal for my neighbor, contempt for the world.

May I strive to obey those above me, to aid those dependent on me, to have care for my friends, to have forgiveness for my enemies.

May I conquer sensuality by austerity, avarice by generosity, anger by gentleness, lukewarmness by fervor.

Render me prudent in planning, steadfast in dangers, patient in adversity, humble in prosperity.

Make me, O Lord, attentive at prayer, moderate at meals, diligent at work, firm in purpose.

May I be careful to maintain inward innocence, outward modesty, exemplary behavior, a well-governed life.

May I be always watchful in subduing nature, fostering Grace, observing Your Law, winning salvation.

May I learn from you how precarious is the earthly, how great the Divine, how fleeting is time, how lasting the Eternal.

Grant that I may prepare for death, flee judgment, flee hell, gain Paradise. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“Devotion to St Joseph is one of the choicest Graces that God can give to a soul, for it is tantamount to revealing the entire treasury of our Lord’s Graces. When God wishes to raise a soul to greater heights, he unites it to St Joseph by giving it a strong love for the good saint.” St. Peter Julian Eymard

“Knowing by experience St Joseph’s astonishing influence with God, I would wish to persuade everyone to honor him with particular devotion. I have always seen those who honored him in a special manner make progress in virtue, for this heavenly protector favors in a striking manner the spiritual advancement of souls who commend themselves to him.” St. Teresa of Avila

“St Joseph was chosen among all men, to be the protector and guardian of the Virgin Mother of God; the defender and foster-father of the Infant God, and the only co-operator upon earth, the one confidant of the secret of God in the work of the redemption of mankind.” St. Bernard of Clairvaux

“There are many Saints to whom God has given the power to assist us in the necessities of life, but the power given to St Joseph is unlimited: it extends to all our needs, and all those who invoke him with confidence are sure to be heard.” St. Thomas Aquinas

“Truly, I doubt not that the Angels, wondering and adoring, came thronging in countless multitudes to that poor workshop to admire the humility of him who guarded that dear and Divine Child, and labored at his carpenter’s trade to support the Son and the Mother who were committed to his care.” St. Francis de Sales

The next St. Pio Knights of Columbus Council 16016 membership meeting will be on Wednesday, March 11, at 7:00pm, at the Church of St. Michael, Pine Island. All members are invited to attend.

Partners in Compassion: This year our parishes will participate in a Lenten collection to support the work of Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries. Imagine a nun going undercover, walking the streets at night rescuing women and children from the world of human trafficking. This is but one of the missions of the Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries in the Philippines and California—rescuing victims of trafficking and giving them hope for a better future through educational assistance to survivors and to the rural poor of the Philippines. The missionaries, also known as “Pink Sisters,” due to the color of their habits, provide help in the form of:

- Temporary shelter
- Basic health care, food, and nutrition
- Maternity and Medical Assistance
- Psychological Therapy and Counseling
- Recreational Activities
- Spiritual Formation
- Educational assistance
- Livelihood & skills training: baking, sewing, cooking & catering, candle-making, etc.
- Childcare for young mothers with children as they rehabilitate.

You can help by picking up a collection bottle available at the entrance of the Churches of St. Paul or St. Michael, filling it with change you collect during Lent (or write a check to the church, noting “Partners in Compassion” on the memo line), and returning the filled bottle at Easter-time.

If you would like to find out more about Mary Queen of Heaven Missionaries and the work they do, visit their website at: <https://www.mqhm.org/> “There are so many young girls who are calling us for help, but there is nowhere for them to go. At the center, we give them unlimited love and unlimited help.” -MQHM Sister Irene Baquiran

Please prayerfully consider participating in this collection to help rescue God’s children from trafficking and poverty!
