From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

I want to thank all those who helped with and attended the Divine Mercy celebration held at the Church of St. Michael last Sunday, April 7. Our Lord opened the gates of Heaven on that day in a special way! Let us all continue to grow in thanksgiving and confidence in Our Lord's Divine Mercy!

Also, I am praying for all of you during my pilgrimage. I am grateful for any remembrance in prayer that you may offer to our good Lord!

This week I share with you what our Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches about the Dogma of Resurrection of the Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ:

“We bring you the good news that what God promised to the fathers, this day He has fulfilled to us their children by raising Jesus.” (Acts 13:32-33) The Resurrection of Jesus is the crowning Truth of our Faith in Christ, a Faith believed and lived as the central Truth by the first Christian community; handed on as fundamental by Tradition; established by the documents of the New Testament; and preached as an essential part of the Paschal mystery along with the Cross: ‘Christ is risen from the dead! Dying, He conquered death; To the dead, He has given Life.’ (Byzantine Liturgy, Troparion of Easter)

The mystery of Christ's Resurrection is a real event, with manifestations that were historically verified, as the New Testament bears witness. In about A.D. 56 St. Paul could already write to the Corinthians: ‘I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve...’ (I Cor 15:3-4) The Apostle speaks here of the living tradition of the Resurrection which he had learned after his conversion at the gates of Damascus. (Acts 9:3-18)

‘Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.’ (Luke 24:5-6) The first element we encounter in the framework of the Easter events is the empty tomb. In itself it is not a direct proof of Resurrection; the absence of Christ's body from the tomb could be explained otherwise. (Cf. John 20:13; Matthew 28:11-15) Nonetheless the empty tomb was still an essential sign for all. Its discovery by the disciples was the first step toward recognizing the very fact of the Resurrection. This was the case, first with the holy women, and then with Peter. (Cf. Luke 24:3, 12, 22-23) The disciple ‘whom Jesus loved’ affirmed that when he entered the empty tomb and discovered ‘the linen cloths lying there’, ‘he saw and believed’. (John 20:2, 6, 8) This suggests that he realized from the empty tomb's condition that the absence of Jesus' body could not have been of human doing and that Jesus had not simply returned to earthly life as had been the case with Lazarus. (Cf. John 11:44; 20:5-7)

Mary Magdalene and the holy women who came to finish anointing the body of Jesus, which had been buried in haste because the Sabbath began on the evening of Good Friday, were the first to encounter the Risen One. (Mark 16:1; Luke 24:1; John 19:31, 42) Thus the women were the first messengers of Christ's Resurrection for the apostles themselves. (Cf. Luke 24:9-10; Matthew 28:9-10; John 20:11-18) They were the next to whom Jesus appears: first Peter, then the Twelve. Peter had been called to strengthen the Faith of his brothers, (Cf. I Corinthians 15:5; Luke 22:31-32) and so sees the Risen One before them; it is on the basis of his testimony that the community exclaims: ‘The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!’ (Luke 24:34, 36) Everything that happened during those Paschal days involves each of the apostles - and Peter in particular - in the building of the new era begun on Easter morning. As witnesses of the Risen One, they remain the foundation stones of His Church. The faith of the first community of believers is based on the witness of concrete men known to the Christians and for the most part still living among them. Peter and the Twelve are the primary ‘witnesses to His Resurrection’, but they are not the (continued on page 3)

PRO-LIFE QUOTES

“Formal co-operation in an abortion constitutes a grave offence. The Church attaches the canonical penalty of excommunication to this crime against human life. ‘A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication ‘latae sententiae’ Code of Canon Law, 1398) ‘by the very commission of the offence’, (Canon Law 1314) and subject to the conditions provided by Canon Law. (Canon Law 1323-1324) The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society.” From the Catechism of the Catholic Church -2272
 “If the bringing of children into the world is today an economic burden, it is because the social system is inadequate; and not because God’s law is wrong. Therefore the State should remove the causes of that burden. The human must not be limited and controlled to fit the economic, but the economic must be expanded to fit the human.” Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen
 Once that living love is destroyed by contraception, abortion follows easily... And abortion, which often follows from contraception, brings a people to be spiritually poor, and that is the worst poverty and the most difficult to overcome. St. Teresa of Calcutta

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“The rediscovery of the Lord’s Day is a grace which we must implore, not only so that we may live the demands of Faith to the full, but also so that we may respond concretely to the deepest human yearnings. Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human.” St. John Paul II

CHURCH OF ST. PAUL FAITH FORMATION

(From Father Kasel ... from page 1) only ones - Paul speaks clearly of more than five hundred persons to whom Jesus appeared on a single occasion and also of James and of all the Apostles. (I Corinthians 15:4-8; Cf. Acts 1:22) Given all these testimonies, Christ's Resurrection cannot be interpreted as something outside the physical order, and it is impossible not to acknowledge it as an historical fact. It is clear from the facts that the disciples' Faith was drastically put to the test by their master's Passion and death on the cross, which He had foretold. (Cf. Luke 22:31-32) The shock provoked by the Passion was so great that at least some of the disciples did not at once believe in the news of the Resurrection. Far from showing us a community seized by a mystical exaltation, the Gospels present us with disciples demoralized ('looking sad' see: Luke 24:17; Cf. John 20:19) and frightened. For they had not believed the holy women returning from the tomb and had regarded their words as an 'idle tale'. (Luke 24:11; Cf. Mark 16:11, 13) When Jesus reveals Himself to the Eleven on Easter evening, 'he upbraided them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw Him after He had risen.' (Mark 16:14) Even when faced with the reality of the risen Jesus the disciples are still doubtful, so impossible did the thing seem: they thought they were seeing a ghost. 'In their joy they were still disbelieving and still wondering.' (Luke 24:38-41) Thomas will also experience the test of doubt and St. Matthew relates that during the risen Lord's last appearance in Galilee 'some doubted.' (Cf. John 20:24-27; Matthew 28:17) Therefore the hypothesis that the Resurrection was produced by the Apostles' Faith (or credulity) will not hold up. On the contrary their Faith in the Resurrection was born, under the action of Divine Grace, from their direct experience of the reality of the risen Jesus." (CCC 638-644) Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may our Merciful and Risen Lord Jesus bless you, your families and our parishes!
In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese of Lisieux, Carmelite
O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep Your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the Priesthood. Let Your holy Love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in Heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen
