From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This weekend we begin the season of Advent. What do you know about this season in the Church that is all-too-often overlooked? Here is a brief article that can help remind us of the importance the Advent season:

“The word 'Advent' is from the Latin 'Adventus,' which means 'coming.' Advent is the beginning of a new liturgical year (in the Western churches), and encompasses the span of time from the Fourth Sunday before Christmas, until the Nativity of Our Lord is celebrated. The First Sunday of Advent is the Sunday nearest the feast of St. Andrew the Apostle (which is November 30th), and so it will always fall somewhere between November 27th at the earliest and December 3rd at the latest. The liturgical color for this Season is purple (Usually a deep purple as opposed to the lighter, red-violet shade of purple associated with Lent).

Like Lent, Advent is a preparatory season. It has significance because it is a Season of looking forward and waiting for something greater; both for the annual celebration of the event of Christ's birth, and for the time when Christ will come again.

As noted in the New Catholic Encyclopedia, during Advent, the faithful are asked:

- to prepare themselves worthily to celebrate the anniversary of the Lord's coming into the world as the incarnate God of Love,
- thus to make their souls fitting abodes for the Redeemer coming in Holy Communion and through Grace, and
- thereby to make themselves ready for His final coming as judge - at death and at the end of the world.

Origin and History of Advent: The exact time when the Season of Advent came to be celebrated is not precisely known. Of course, it was not in practice before the celebration of the Nativity and Christmastide began; the earliest evidence shows that the feast of the Nativity of Our Lord was established within the later part of the 4th century. There are homilies from the 5th century that discuss preparation in a general sense, but do not indicate an official liturgical season. A Synod held in 590 established that Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from November 11th until the Nativity would be offered according to the Lenten rite. This and other traditions, such as fasting, show that the period of time now established as the Advent season was more penitential (similar to Lent) than the liturgical season as we know it today.

A collection of homilies from Pope St. Gregory the Great (whose papacy was from 590-604) included a sermon for the second Sunday of Advent, and by (the year) 650, Spain was celebrating the Sundays (five at the time) of Advent. So it seems the liturgical season was established around the latter part of the 6th century and first half of the 7th century. For the next couple of centuries, Advent was celebrated for five Sundays; Pope Gregory VII, who was

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

pope from 1073-85, reduced the number to four Sundays.

Advent Today: The themes and traditions of the Advent season have evolved throughout the history of the liturgical season. As mentioned, the early Advent Season was mainly penitential, close to the theme of the Lenten Season. Today a penitential theme still exists, but it is not as intense as in 7th century. Also, it is blended with the theme of prayerful, spiritual preparation for the second and final coming of the Lord, as well as the joyful preparation for the annual festive remembrance of the Incarnation and Christ's birth. In recent decades, a trend of wearing blue vestments rather than purple during Advent has emerged. However, purple is the appropriate vestment color, as noted in paragraph 346 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, in the section which discusses the prescribed colors for liturgical vestments:

- Violet or purple is used in Advent and Lent. It may also be worn in Offices and Masses for the Dead.
- Rose may be used, where it is the practice, on Gaudete Sunday (Third Sunday of Advent) and on Laetare Sunday (Fourth Sunday of Lent).

Advent Penances and Act of Charity

Dear Parishioners: As we enter Advent, I invite all to prayerfully consider undertaking voluntary penances and acts of Charity toward God and neighbor appropriate to this Season of the Church year. Doing this together across our parishes will increase our unity and provide new openings for the Holy Spirit to work in our parishes and our personal lives.

Here are some suggestions: abstaining from meat on Friday and another day of the week; fasting on Friday or another day of the week (fasting is: two half meals and only one full meal during that day, with no snacking in between meals); giving up desserts; volunteer your time at the church; make time for more personal prayer; attend one or two weekday Holy Masses per week; give special financial alms; forgive offenses; make apologies for wrongs and make a good Sacramental Confession. You may also have some ideas for penances and acts of Charity. Let us make this an Advent that truly prepares our hearts for our good Lord at Christmas! In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

Institute of Catholic Culture Lecture Series:

Et Verbum Caro Factum Est: Poetry and the Prologue of John

Join Dr. Anthony Esolen to explore the Semitic poetry underlying the Prologue of John's Gospel, alluding to and fulfilling earlier scriptural accounts of the creation of the world and the coming of the Messiah. This talk will focus closely on the way the poetry works, especially on the strands of significance that John binds together in such motifs as word, light, name, flesh, truth, and glory. Details: Tuesday, December 5, Pre-Class Discussion: 7:30PM EST, Lecture: 8:00 PM EST

Instructor: Anthony Esolen, Ph.D. Registration is required. <https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/events/et-verbum-caro-factum-est>

The Truth about Confessing One's Sins

"The Holy Spirit says in the Psalms: Your eyes have seen my imperfection and in Your book are all things written. Again, man looks on the face, God on the heart (1 Sm 16:7). The Lord Himself also warns beforehand and forearms us, saying: Let all the churches know that I am the searcher of hearts and minds (Rv 2:23). He sees the hidden things, He contemplates what is concealed and unseen, nor is anyone able to escape the eyes of God who says: I am a God who is near and not a God from afar off. If a man be hidden in hidden places, will I not therefore see him? (Jer 23:23-24). He sees the minds and hearts of individuals and, destined to judge not only regarding deeds but also regarding our words and thoughts, He inspects the minds and wills of us all.

Let each of you confess, I beg you, brothers, his own sin while still in the world, while you can still be allowed Confession, while there is the possibility of making amends, and forgiveness, granted through the priests, is still efficacious with God. Let us turn to God with our whole heart and expressing penitence for our sin with true sorrowing, let us plead with God for His Mercy. Let us prostrate our soul before Him, let us repay our debt with mourning, and let all our Hope rest on His support.

God Himself tells us in what condition we must entreat: Return to Me with all your heart and at the same time with fasting and weeping and lamentation, and rend your hearts and not your garments (Jl 2:12-13). Let us turn again to the Lord with our whole heart." St. Cyprian († 258 - Bishop of Carthage (modern Tunisia) and a martyr)

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

Respect for life and for the dignity of the human personal also extends to the rest of creation, which is called to join man in praising God. St. John Paul II

"All who are genuinely committed to the advancement of women can and must offer a woman or a girl who is pregnant, frightened, and alone a better alternative than the destruction of her own unborn child" Mary Ann Glendon, 4th World Conference on Women, Beijing, Sept. 5, 1995

"The Gospel of Life is for the whole of human society. To be actively pro-life is to contribute to the renewal of society through the promotion of the common good." (#101) quotes from 'Gospel of Life, St. John Paul II)

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"Mark the season of Advent by loving and serving others with God's own love and concern." St. Teresa of Calcutta

"The season of Advent is like springtime in nature, when everything is renewed and so is fresh and healthy. Advent is also meant to do this to us - to refresh us and make us healthy, to be able to receive Christ in whatever form He may come to us." St. Teresa of Calcutta

"To Love is to will the good of the other." St. Thomas Aquinas

"The greatest kindness one can render to any man consists in leading him from error to Truth." St. Thomas Aquinas

"It is by the path of Love, which is Charity, that God draws near to man and man to God. But where Charity is not found, God cannot dwell. If, then, we possess Charity, we possess God, for 'God is Charity' (1 John 4:8)." St. Albert the Great

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) Advent Traditions: Advent celebration and traditions can vary from place to place, influenced by culture. However, some traditions have come to be common throughout the Catholic Church.

The Advent wreath is likely the most popular tradition, and wreaths are typically present in both the parish church and in the home. It is a more recent tradition, with the modern Advent wreath emerging in Germany and spreading throughout Europe and beyond in the 1930's. It is often circular, representing God's eternity, and it includes 4 candles - one for each Sunday of Advent. Many families have a wreath in the home, and will light the candles each Sunday and say Advent prayers together. The Jesse Tree is also a popular Advent tradition. A Jesse Tree, named for the father of David, is a tree that is decorated gradually throughout Advent with symbols or pictures of Biblical persons associated with the gradual coming of the Messiah, Christ. This includes, among others, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Joseph and Mary. The Jesse Tree tradition provides a wonderful teaching opportunity; it is a perfect way to teach and remind children about the preparatory nature of Advent. Advent calendars are another popular tradition, although they most often follow the calendar month of December, not the four Sundays which can begin in November." (from www.aquinasandmore.com) Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, St. Joseph, St. Michael, and St. Paul, may the Holy Spirit help us during Advent to prepare for the celebration of the Birthday of our good Lord Jesus!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

Retirement Fund for Religious Collection: December 2-3

Thousands of senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests spent years working in Catholic schools, hospitals, and agencies—often for little or no pay. Now, their religious communities do not have enough savings for retirement and eldercare. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care, and more. Please be generous.

The next St. Pio Knights of Columbus membership meeting will be Wednesday, December 13, at 7pm at the Church of St. Michael. All members are encouraged to attend!

†ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT†

Can you spend an hour with Jesus? Adoration is held at St. Paul, Zumbrota on Tuesdays from 9am-5pm and St. Michael, Pine Island on Wednesdays from 9am-5pm.

Washington D.C. March for Life 2024

For the first time in recent memory, the Archdiocese is offering a pilgrimage to Washington D.C. for adults and families to attend the National March for Life as well as the trip for high school youth. Though Roe vs. Wade was overturned in June 2022, abortion access is expanding in many states across the nation. It is a great tragedy that despite the victory in the supreme court, many politicians still support this grave evil. Through this trip we have the opportunity to stand in opposition on the national stage and tell everyone how sacred life is from conception to natural death. Please contact Assistant Youth Ministry Coordinator Martin Gawarecki at gawareckim@archspm.org or 651.291.4506 to get on the contact list for March for Life information. The dates for the pilgrimage are: January 16-21, 2024.
