From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

We are now at the First Sunday of Lent and entering the first full week of this time of penance and spiritual growth before Holy Week and Easter! If you have not taken some time to consider how you can grow closer to Jesus with the help of His Grace or if you have thought about it, but need more ideas, here are several suggestions that may be helpful to you this Lent:

1. Ask for God's will to be done in your life and then let Him lead. The best way to grow is to reflect on your life, talk it over with God and then follow Him. We need our Lord's grace to move forward in love with Him – so be sure to talk over your life with Him!

2. Go to the Sacrament of Confession. This is the Sacrament of Conversion and the Sacrament that brings about wonderful change in the soul. Remember the five elements of a good Confession: A. Examine your conscience; B. Have true contrition for having sinned against God; C. Make a firm resolution to not sin anymore; E. Confess all you sins, particularly mortal sins in number and kind; E. Complete the penance assigned by the priest.

3. Go to daily Holy Mass whenever possible. The Real Presence of our good Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist is the center of our Catholic Faith. Try to be with Him as much as possible!

4. Examine your interior life. Our Lord would very much like us to do this on a daily basis: what are my thoughts, feelings and desires? Then share what is in the heart with Jesus and Mary. We also need to look for our faults. In what areas of life is the heart resistant to the Will of God or the teachings of His Catholic Church?

5. Pray the Rosary (if possible in the Church) and pray with a greater conviction of God's personal love for you. We all have need for more contact with God, especially with how busy we let our lives become. Mary teaches us how to be open to God. Through the Holy Rosary Mary brings us closer to Jesus. Also, take time to practice the four core habits of the interior life of prayer (ARRR):

Acknowledge (inside oneself: thoughts, feelings, desires), Relate what is in the soul to God; Receive from God what He wills to communicate; Respond to what God shares with you.

6. Pray the Stations of the Cross in the Church or at home. Our Lord Jesus desires love from our hearts. Meditating on His Passion is a good way to love Him! He is consoled by this practice.

7. Fast from not only food, but anything that takes one away from awareness of God's loving presence. Is it too much 'facebook', internet, television, or video games? Is it a habit of negativity or a critical tongue? Whatever tends to take your attention off of God during the day, try to fast from it.

8. Give alms or tithe. The ancient practice sustains the Church and helps those who have less than we do. It also expands our souls to love God and our neighbor more. The sacrifice of alms giving helps us become more like God, who has given us all good things in life, including our time, talents and financial resources!

9. Apologize to someone you have offended and forgive the faults

Welcome to the Churches of

of others. Who needs to hear you say that you are sorry for what you have done or said? Think it through and really mean it from your heart when you apologize. Forgive grudges you have held onto. Let go of negative feelings. Forgive and let go of the debt of the lack of charity in any relationships.

10. Volunteer for God. What are you doing to build up the Kingdom of God? God delights in our effort to work with Him to build up His Church on earth. Volunteer to work for the salvation of souls! If you want know ways to get involved, ask your pastor!

11. Read a good book. Our minds and hearts need to be nourished with Love and Truth, who is God. Find a great Catholic spiritual book and enjoy it. Some suggestions: The Diary of St. Faustina; The Story of a Soul; The Sanctifier; The Miracle of the Mountain; True Devotion to the Virgin Mary.

Let us try some or even all of these 10 suggestions and then have the best Lent ever!

Through the intercession of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary and Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may our good Lord bless our parishes, our Archdiocese, and the whole Church!

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Kasel

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"He so hated and despised sin that He avenged it on His own body with great pain, derision, torture, and reproach, His Passion and death - and not for Himself (for the poison of sin was not in Him) but only as a service to us, to satisfy for our sins. He gives us back the light of Grace and relieves us of the darkness that had entered our soul because of sin." St. Catherine of Siena

"I say we have been given a guide. I mean the only-begotten Incarnate Word, God's Son, who shows us how to walk along this road that is so well lighted. He says, you know 'I am the Way and Truth and Life. Whoever walks in me walks not in darkness but in light.' He is Truth, and there is no falsehood in Him." St. Catherine of Siena

"He who wishes to find Jesus should seek Him, not in the delights and pleasures of the world, but in mortification of the senses." St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

"Let us read the lives of the Saints; let us consider the penances which they performed, and blush to be so... fearful of mortifying our flesh." St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

"Some subordinate their progress in perfection, which consists in denying their desires and likings out of Love for God, to their own tastes and whims. So strong is this inclination that even if they are commanded by obedience to do something which is to their liking, they immediately lose their desire for it, and all interest in it, because their one desire is to do their own will. The Saints did not act this way." St. John of the Cross

The original Open Window Theatre saint drama that started it all. This critically acclaimed play is back for its 10-year anniversary this Lent!

Mercy Unrelenting tells the remarkable true story of the young Italian martyr, St. Maria Goretti. The play starts on June 23rd, 1950, the eve of Maria's canonization as a saint of the Catholic Church, a ceremony that attracted an unprecedented half-a-million people to Rome. In light of renewed interest in the story, controversies around her canonization, and rumors of an astounding miracle in the life of Maria's killer, an ambitious female journalist arrives at an obscure monastery seeking answers from the mouth of the reclusive murderer himself. Difficult questions lead to unexpected answers, forcing both of them to confront the demons of their past. This play runs Thursday through Sunday every weekend from February 24 through March 26.

Prayer to the Virgin Mary: My Queen, my Mother, I give myself entirely to you, and to show my devotion to you, I consecrate to you this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my entire self without reserve. As I am your own, my good Mother, guard me and defend me as your property and possession. Amen

Pray for Divine Light

"No one can be saved without Divine Light. Divine Light causes us to begin and to make progress, and it leads us to the summit of perfection. Therefore if you want to begin and to receive this Divine Light, pray. If you have begun to make progress and want this Light to be intensified within you, pray. And if you have reached the summit of perfection, and want to be illumined so as to remain in that state, pray.

If you want Faith, pray. If you want Hope, pray. If you want Charity, pray. If you want poverty, pray. If you want obedience, pray. If you want chastity, pray. If you want humility, pray. If you want meekness, pray. If you want fortitude, pray. If you want some virtue, pray. And pray in this fashion, namely, always reading the Book of Life, that is, the life of the God-man Jesus Christ, whose life consisted of poverty, pain, contempt, and true obedience.

A soul thus exercised in cleansing itself goes with greater confidence to Confession to have its sins washed away. And so that nothing impure may remain, it puts itself to a kind of scrutiny. It enters into prayer and examines the good and evil it has done. As a result, you begin to feel the presence of God more fully than usual because your palate is more disposed to savor God's presence than before. It is through prayer, then, that one will be given the most powerful Light to see God and self." St. Angela of Foligno († 1309) St. Angela was a wife and mother who later became a Franciscan tertiary and an esteemed mystical writer. ## PRO LIFE QUOTE:

“Abortion kills twice. It kills the body of the baby and it kills the con-science of the mother. Abortion is profoundly anti-women. Three quarters of its victims are women: Half the babies and all the mothers.” St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta
 “Never tire of firmly speaking out in defense of life from its conception and do not be deterred from the commitment to defend the dignity of every human person with courageous determination. Christ is with you: be not afraid!” – St. John Paul II
 “The hairsplitting difference between formed and unformed makes no difference to us. Whoever deliberately commits abortion is subject to the penalty for homicide.” —St. Basil the Great (329-379), Father and Doctor of the Church
 “Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person – among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.” Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270
