From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The First Holy Communion season is in full swing throughout the Church. This weekend our youth who have been preparing for First Holy Communion will receive our Lord Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar for the first time. This is very special for them and for our parishes! Let us remember our own First Communion and pray for our children to always love our Lord, Truly Present in the Holy Eucharist!

This week I share with you a summary of our Faith regarding the Real Presence of our Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist and some quotes on the Holy Eucharist.

"The doctrine of the Real Presence asserts that in the Holy Eucharist, Jesus is literally and wholly present - Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity - under the appearances of bread and wine. Evangelicals and Fundamentalists frequently attack this doctrine as 'unbiblical,' but the Bible is forthright in declaring it (cf. 1 Cor. 10:16-17, 11:23-29; and, most forcefully, John 6:32-71).

The early Church Fathers interpreted these passages literally. In summarizing the early Fathers' teachings on Christ's Real Presence, renowned Protestant historian of the early Church J. N. D. Kelly, writes: 'Eucharistic teaching, it should be understood at the outset, was in general unquestioningly realist, i.e., the consecrated bread and wine were taken to be, and were treated and designated as, the Savior's Body and Blood.'" (Early Christian Doctrines, 440)

"From the Church's early days, the Fathers referred to Christ's presence in the Eucharist. Kelly writes: 'Ignatius roundly declares that . . . [t]he bread is the flesh of Jesus, the cup his blood. Clearly he intends this realism to be taken strictly, for he makes it the basis of his argument against the Docetists' denial of the reality of Christ's body. . . . Irenaeus teaches that the bread and wine are really the Lord's body and blood. His witness is, indeed, all the more impressive because he produces it quite incidentally while refuting the Gnostic and Docetic rejection of the Lord's real humanity.'" (ibid., 197-98)

"Hippolytus speaks of 'the Body and the Blood' through which the Church is saved, and Tertullian regularly describes the bread as 'the Lord's body.' The converted pagan, he remarks, 'feeds on the richness of the Lord's Body, that is, on the Eucharist.' The realism of his theology comes to light in the argument, based on the intimate relation of body and soul, that just as in Baptism the body is washed with water so that the soul may be cleansed, so in the Eucharist 'the flesh feeds upon Christ's Body and Blood so that the soul may be filled with God.' Clearly his assumption is that the Savior's Body and Blood are as real as the Baptismal Water. Cyprian's attitude is similar. Lapsed Christians who claim Communion without doing penance, he declares, 'do violence to His Body and Blood, a sin more heinous against the Lord with their hands and mouths than when they denied him.' Later he ex-

patients on the terrifying consequences of profaning the Sacrament, and the stories he tells confirm that he took the Real Presence literally." (ibid., 211-12)

St. Justin Martyr

"We call this food Eucharist, and no one else is permitted to partake of it, except one who believes our teaching to be true and who has been washed in the washing which is for the remission of sins and for regeneration [i.e., has received Baptism] and is thereby living as Christ enjoined. For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these; but since Jesus Christ our Savior was made incarnate by the Word of God and had both Flesh and Blood for our salvation, so too, as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic prayer set down by Him, and by the change of which our blood and flesh is (continued on page 3)

(From Father Kasel ... from page 1) nurtured, is both the Flesh and the Blood of that incarnated Jesus." (First Apology 66 [A.D. 151])

St. Augustine of Hippo

"What you see is the Bread and the Chalice; that is what your own eyes report to you. But what your Faith obliges you to accept is that the Bread is the Body of Christ and the Chalice is the Blood of Christ. This has been said very briefly, which may perhaps be sufficient for Faith; yet Faith does not desire instruction." (ibid., 272)

St. Ambrose of Milan

"Perhaps you may be saying, 'I see something else; how can you assure me that I am receiving the Body of Christ?' It but remains for us to prove it. And how many are the examples we might use!... Christ is in that Sacrament, because it is the Body of Christ." (The Mysteries 9:50, 58 [A.D. 390]) (taken from www.catholic.com) Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of the Eucharist, St. Joseph, St. Michael, and St. Paul, may God bless our parishes, our Archdiocese and all the Faithful throughout the world with heartfelt Faith in the Holy Eucharist!

In Christ through Mary,

St Joseph the Worker Feast Day is celebrated on May 1 each year. The title, St Joseph the Worker, reminds us that St Joseph is the patron of carpenters, builders and all workers as stated by Pope Pius XII in 1955. Pope Pius XII wrote a prayer especially for this great Feast;

"Oh glorious St Joseph, model of all who are devoted to labor, obtain for me the grace to work in the spirit of penance in expiation of my many sins; to work conscientiously by placing love of duty above my inclinations; to gratefully and joyously deem it an honor to employ and to develop by labor the gifts I have received from God, to work methodically, peacefully and in moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from it through weariness or difficulty to work; above all, with purity of intention and unselfishness, having unceasingly before my eyes death and the account I have to render of time lost, talents unused, good not done, and vain complacency in success, so harmful to the work of God. All for Jesus, all for Mary, all to imitate you, O Patriarch St. Joseph! This shall be my motto for life and eternity. Amen."

Please Pray for those to be Ordained Transitional Deacons: Saturday, May 11, 10-11:30am, Basilica of Saint Mary, Minneapolis. All the faithful are invited to attend the Diaconate Ordination. These Theology III seminarians from the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis will celebrate the Rite of Transitional Diaconate Ordination by the imposition of hands by His Excellency, The Most Reverend Michael J. Izen. Please pray for these men.

PRO-LIFE QUOTES

"Life is a Gift From God. The Church's teaching on the dignity of human life is clear. "Human life" states the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person—among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life." Denver Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila - January 22, 2013

"Find the courage to proclaim Christ,... and the unchanging truths which have their foundation in Him. These are the truths that set us free! They are the truths which alone can guarantee respect for the inalienable dignity and rights of each man, woman and child in our world - including the most defenseless of all human beings, the unborn child in the mother's womb." Pope Benedict XVI, at Yankee Stadium, April 20, 2008

All are invited for a brunch to honor Karen Hodgman for her ACCW Lay Woman Award on April 28 after Holy Mass.
