From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This Sunday the Church of St. Paul hosts the annual St. Patrick's Ham Dinner at the Zumbrota VFW. I encourage all of our parishioners to support this wonderful event! Along with a fabulous meal, you can check out several great items on our silent auction. Come and enjoy the hospitality of the Church of St. Paul!

This weekend I would like to focus once more on St. Joseph, the Spouse of the Virgin Mary and Foster Father of our Lord Jesus. I encourage all who are able to attend Holy Mass this coming Tuesday, March 19, as we celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We have two options for Holy Mass: at 8:30am at St. Paul in Zumbrota and at 6:30pm at the Church of St. Michael in Pine Island.

This Sunday I share with you a reflection from Fr. John Hardon, S.J. that I found to be both inspiring and educational:

"There are many good reasons why St. Joseph should be the special heavenly patron of dedicated souls - in the religious life, in the priesthood, and among the laity. But as the Church teaches, he is especially to be venerated and his patronage invoked because he was the guardian of the Virgin Mary and the foster-father of Jesus.

The dignity of the Mother of God is so sublime that nothing created can rank above it. But as Joseph was united to the Blessed Virgin by the ties of marriage, we may believe that he approached nearer than anyone else to the eminent dignity by which the Mother of God surpasses all human persons in holiness. Marriage is the most intimate of all unions, which from its essence confers a sharing of gifts between those joined together in wedlock. Thus, in giving Joseph the Blessed Virgin as his spouse, God appointed him to be not only the witness of her virginity, the protector of her honor, but also, because they were truly married, a sharer in her exalted sanctity.

Joseph shines above all mankind by the august privilege of his vocation as the foster-father of the Son of God and, therefore, the diligent protector of Christ.

From this two-fold dignity flows the obligation which nature lays on the heads of families, so that Joseph became the administrator and legal defender of the Holy Family. He set himself to defend with a mighty love and a daily concern his spouse and the Divine Infant. Regularly by his work he earned what was necessary for the one and the other for nourishment and clothing. He guarded the Child from death when threatened by Herod's jealousy, and found for him a refuge in Egypt. In the miseries of the journey and in the bitterness of exile, he was ever the companion, the helper, and the upholder of Jesus and His Virgin Mother.

We may confidently say that the Holy Family which Joseph ruled with the authority of a father contained within itself the first beginnings of the Church. So that, even as Mary is the Mother of the Church because she is the Mother of Christ, so Joseph is the Protector of Holy Church because he was the guardian of Jesus and Mary."

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, St. Joseph, the Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Michael, St. Paul, and all the Angels and Saints, may we all come to know and experience the great love and mercy of our Heavenly Father!

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Kasel

Prayer to St. Joseph: Oh, St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God. I place in you all my interests and desires. Oh, St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers. Oh, St. Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you, and Jesus asleep in your arms; I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls - pray for me. Amen.

Prayer of St. Patrick

I arise today through a mighty Strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the Threeness, through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation.

I arise today through the strength of Christ's birth with His baptism, through the strength of His crucifixion with His burial, through the strength of His resurrection with His ascension, through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

I arise today through the strength of the love of cherubim, in the obedience of Angels, in the service of Archangels, in the hope of resurrection to meet with reward, in the prayers of patriarchs, in the predictions of Prophets, in the preaching of Apostles, in the Faith of Confessors, in the innocence of Holy Virgins, in the deeds of Righteous Men. I arise today, through the strength of Heaven, the light of the sun, the radiance of the moon, the splendor of fire, the speed of lightning, the swiftness of wind, the depth of the sea, the stability of the earth, the firmness of rock.

I arise today, through God's strength to pilot me, God's might to uphold me, God's Wisdom to guide me, God's eye to look before me, God's ear to hear me, God's Word to speak for me, God's hand to guard me, God's shield to protect me, God's host to save me from snares of devils, from temptation of vices, from everyone who shall wish me ill, afar and near.

I summon today all these powers between me and those evils, against every cruel and merciless power that may oppose my body and soul, against incantations of false prophets, against black laws of pagandom, against false laws of heretics, against craft of idolatry, against spells of witches and smiths and wizards, against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ to shield me today against poison, against burning, against drowning, against wounding, So that there may come to me an abundance of reward.

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me.

I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity, through belief in the Threeness, through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation.

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"What could Jesus Christ refuse St. Joseph, who never refused Him anything during his mortal life on earth?" St. Augustine
"St. Joseph was an ordinary sort of man on whom God relied to do great things. He did exactly what the Lord wanted him to do, in each and every event that went to make up his life. That is why Scripture praises Joseph as 'a just man'. And in Hebrew a just man means a good and faithful servant of God, someone who fulfills the Divine Will, or who is honorable and charitable toward his neighbor." St. Josemaria Escriva
"The dignity and glory of St. Joseph is such that the Eternal Father conferred upon him with greatest liberality, a likeness to his own supremacy over his incarnate Son." St. Bernadine of Siena
"What many kings and prophets desired to see, and saw not; desired to hear, and heard not; he [St. Joseph] was allowed not merely to hear and see, but also to carry, lead, embrace, kiss, nourish, and protect." St. Bernard of Clairvaux
"Jesus wished to become indebted to St. Joseph for the necessities of life, and of this Holy Patriarch alone it may be said that he saved the life of his Savior." St. Madaleine Sophie Barat
"Saint Joseph is most powerful against the demons which fight against us at the end of our lives." St. Alphonsus de Liguori
"I know not how anyone can ponder on the sufferings, trials, and tribulations the Queen of Angels endured whilst caring for Jesus in His childhood, without at the same time thanking St. Joseph for the services he rendered the Divine Child and His Blessed Mother." St. Teresa of Avila

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage: Marian Route Update

Coming to our parishes this spring!

Starting on Pentecost Sunday, May 19, four processions starting at different locations around the country will begin, concluding at the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis on July 16. The route coming through the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis from May 24-31 is the Marian Route.

The perpetual pilgrims will arrive by vehicle to the Church of St. Paul from the previous stop (St. Mary in New Trier) at approximately 9:30am on Friday, May 31, and plan to begin making their way by foot to the Church of St. Michael at 10:15 am. The pilgrimage is expected to arrive at the Church of St. Michael at approximately 3:30pm and continue on at 4:15pm by vehicle to the next stop in Rochester.

More information on the events at each location and how you can join in this historic procession between our parishes will be coming soon. Check out the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage website at: <https://www.eucharisticpilgrimage.org>

PRO-LIFE QUOTES: "You are called to stand up for life! To respect and defend the mystery of life always and everywhere, including the lives of unborn babies, giving real help and encouragement to mothers in difficult situations. You are called to work and pray against abortion." - St. John Paul II
