From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This past week we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints.

Our good Lord desires that we all be Saints!

To follow Him in fulfilling His desire for each one of us, He grants us Grace to sanctify the heart, mind and will. Let us each one desire to be a Saint!

This week I share with you a sermon from St. Bernard of Clairvaux to help inspire our desire to be a Saint!

“Why should our praise and glorification, or even the celebration of this feast day mean anything to the Saints? What do they care about earthly honors when their heavenly Father honors them by fulfilling the faithful promise of the Son? What does our commendation mean to them? The Saints have no need of honor from us; neither does our devotion add the slightest thing to what is theirs. Clearly, if we venerate their memory, it serves us, not them. But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel myself inflamed by a tremendous yearning.

Calling the Saints to mind inspires, or rather arouses in us, above all else, a longing to enjoy their company, so desirable in itself. We long to share in the citizenship of Heaven, to dwell with the spirits of the blessed, to join the assembly of patriarchs, the ranks of the prophets, the council of apostles, the great host of martyrs, the noble company of confessors and the choir of virgins. In short, we long to be united in happiness with all the saints. But our dispositions change. The Church of all the first followers of Christ awaits us, but we do nothing about it. The Saints want us to be with them, and we are indifferent. The souls of the just await us, and we ignore them.

Come, brothers, let us at length spur ourselves on. We must rise again with Christ, we must seek the world which is above and set our mind on the things of Heaven. Let us long for those who are longing for us, hasten to those who are waiting for us, and ask those who look for our coming to intercede for us. We should not only want to be with the saints, we should also hope to possess their happiness. While we desire to be in their company, we must also earnestly seek to share in their glory. Do not imagine that there is anything harmful in such an ambition as this; there is no danger in setting our hearts on such glory.

When we commemorate the Saints we are inflamed with another yearning: that Christ our life may also appear to us as he appeared to them and that we may one day share in his glory. Until then we see Him, not as He is, but as He became for our sake. He is our head, crowned, not with glory, but with the thorns of our sins. As members of that head, crowned with thorns, we should be ashamed to live in luxury; His purple robes are a mockery rather than an honor. When Christ comes again, His death shall no longer be proclaimed, and we shall know that we also have died, and that our life is hidden with Him. The glorious Head of the Church will appear and His glorified members will shine in splendor with Him, when He forms this lowly body anew into such glory as belongs to Himself, its Head.

Therefore, we should aim at attaining this glory with a whole-hearted and prudent desire. That we may rightly hope and strive for such blessedness, we must above all seek the prayers of the Saints. Thus, what is beyond our own powers to obtain will be granted through their intercession.”

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, Queen of Saints, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may our good Lord bless the Holy Souls in Purgatory and bring them to Heaven!

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Kasel

The next Holy Hour for Men will be on Sunday, November 12, at 6:30pm at the Church of St. Michael. All men are invited!

A sweet exchange between Heaven and earth!

“The Holy Souls, unable to help themselves, rely on the prayers of the Church - our prayers and sufferings - to shorten their time of purification or their journey to Eternal Beatitude. St Thomas Aquinas wrote that, “the prayers for the dead are most acceptable to God because the dead have need of them and cannot help themselves as the living can.” On the one hand there is the dependence of the Holy Souls on our prayers. This builds up the Kingdom of God in Heaven as greater numbers of souls enter Eternal Beatitude. The ‘Keys to the Kingdom’ are in the hands of the faithful members of the Church who can open Paradise by praying for these souls. We should continue to pray for them even though we do not know if they are still in Purgatory or have ascended into Heaven knowing that, in the economy of Salvation, the Lord will distribute the benefits of our prayers. On the other hand, St Thomas teaches us that the Holy Souls can pray for their loved ones on earth whilst, unless God permits it, not knowing their concrete needs. (cfr. St Thomas, Summa Theologiae, 1, q.89) In fact, the souls in Purgatory are very effective in assisting us in our needs and intentions. St Teresa of Avila said, “I never asked Graces from the Souls in Purgatory without being heard. In fact, the Graces I could not gain from other heavenly Spirits, I obtained from the Souls in Purgatory.” There is a sweet exchange of Charity between Heaven and earth with each part helping the other to attain Salvation! Indeed, thought of in this way, we can see that the members of the Church are called to participate in Christ’s mission of Salvation and to take on His sentiments towards these Holy Souls.” (Taken from www.mdrevelation.org/the-saints-teach-us-to-pray-for-the-holy-souls/)

Teach Us Good Lord

Teach us, good Lord, to serve You as You deserve; to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, except that of knowing that we are doing Your will. Amen.

By St. Ignatius of Loyola

Peace Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Feast day October 4)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

- where there is hatred, let me sow love;
- where there is injury, pardon;
- where there is doubt, faith;
- where there is despair, hope;
- where there is darkness, light;
- where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

†ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT†

Can you spend an hour with Jesus? Adoration is held at St. Paul, Zumbrota on Tuesdays from 9am-5pm and St. Michael, Pine Island on Wednesdays from 9am-5pm.

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"At the dawn of salvation, it is the Birth of a Child which is proclaimed as joyful news, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord Lk 2:10-11. The source of this great joy is the Birth of the Saviour, but Christmas also reveals the full meaning of every human birth, and the joy which accompanies the Birth of the Messiah is thus seen to be the foundation and fulfillment of joy at every child born into the world." St. John Paul II

"You are called to stand up for life! To respect and defend the mystery of life always and everywhere, including the lives of unborn babies, giving real help and encouragement to mothers in difficult situations. You are called to work and pray against abortion." St. John Paul II, in New York, 1995

"God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes" [nefanda sunt crimina] Vatican Council II, Church in the Modern World #51
