From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This weekend we celebrate Laetare Sunday. Laetare is the Latin word for 'rejoice'. This title comes from the first word of the entrance antiphon for Holy Mass this weekend. The customary liturgical color is 'rose' because it is the liturgical color that represents joy. If rose vestments are not available, violet could also be utilized as the liturgical color.

Let us rejoice in our Lord today because Holy Week and the Easter celebration are rapidly approaching! Even though we 'rejoice' this weekend, let us continue to keep our eyes fixed closely upon our good Lord.

This week I share with you a sermon by St. John Chrysostom, bishop, (b. 344 - d.407) on the rewards and importance of a daily discipline or habit of prayer.

"Prayer and converse with God is a supreme good: it is a partnership and union with God. As the eyes of the body are enlightened when they see light, so our spirit, when it is intent on God, is illumined by His infinite Light. I do not mean the prayer of outward observance but prayer from the heart, not confined to fixed times or periods but continuous throughout the day and night.

Our spirit should be quick to reach out toward God, not only when it is engaged in meditation; at other times also, when it is carrying out its duties, caring for the needy, performing works of Charity, giving generously in the service of others, our spirit should long for God and call Him to mind, so that these works may be seasoned with the salt of God's Love, and so make a palatable offering to the Lord of the universe. Throughout the whole of our lives we may enjoy the benefit that comes from prayer if we devote a great deal of time to it.

Prayer is the Light of the spirit, true knowledge of God, mediating between God and man. The spirit, raised up to Heaven by prayer, clings to God with the utmost tenderness; like a child crying tearfully for its mother, it craves the milk that God provides. It seeks the satisfaction of its own desires, and receives gifts outweighing the whole world of nature.

Prayer stands before God as an honored ambassador. It gives joy to the spirit, peace to the heart. I speak of prayer, not words. It is the longing for God, love too deep for words, a gift not given by man but by God's Grace. The Apostle Paul says: We do not know how we are to pray but the Spirit Himself pleads for us with inexpressible longings. (Rom 8:26)

When the Lord gives this kind of prayer to a man, He gives him riches that cannot be taken away, heavenly food that satisfies the spirit. One who tastes this food is set on fire with an eternal longing for the Lord: his spirit burns as in a fire of utmost intensity. Practice prayer from the beginning. Paint your house with the colors of modesty and humility. Make it radiant with the light of justice. Decorate it with the finest gold leaf of good deeds.

In Christ through Mary,

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"There is more joy in Heaven over a converted sinner than over a righteous person standing firm. A leader in battle has more love for a soldier who returns after fleeing and who valiantly pursues the enemy, than for one who never turned back but who never acted valiantly either. A farmer has greater love for land which bears fruitfully, after he has cleared it of thorns, than for land which never had thorns but which never yielded a fruitful harvest." St. Pope Gregory the Great (540-604)

"The Sun of our lives is the Eucharist." St. Luigi Guanella

"A Saint is not someone who never sins, but one who sins less and less frequently and gets up more and more quickly." St. Bernard of Clairvaux

"Then, overcome by joy, I cried, 'Jesus, my Love. At last I have found my vocation. My vocation is Love. In the heart of the Church, my mother, I will be Love, and then I will be all things.'" St. Thérèse de Lisieux

"Do not be afraid, then, when Love makes demands. Do not be afraid when Love requires sacrifice." St. Pope John Paul II

"God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." St. Augustine
"Mihi mori lucrum - For me to die is a gain. To die, murdered by the haters of Jesus Christ, would be my gain. All my fervent desires have always been to die in a hospital as a poor man, or on the scaffold as a martyr, murdered by enemies because of the most holy Religion that we profess and preach. I should like to seal with my blood the Virtues and Truths which I have preached and taught." St. Anthony Mary Claret

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"Some people argue that changing laws will not Eliminate abortions. It is certainly true that a change of heart is more important than a change of law. What is forgotten, however, is that the law is the great teacher. Children grow up believing that if a practice is legal, it must be moral."-- John Cardinal O'Connor

"Look at the mothers who truly love their children — how many sacrifices they make for them. They are ready for everything, even to give their own blood so that their babies grow up good, healthy and strong." St. Gianna Molla, wife and mother, b.1922 – d.1962 "Give us the grace - When the sacredness of life before birth is attacked, to stand up and proclaim that no one ever has the authority to destroy unborn life." St. John Paul II
