From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

On January 22, our nation will commemorate the 51st anniversary of the fateful Roe v. Wade United States Supreme Court decision that permitted the practice of abortion in our country. While this decision was overturned in June, 2022, the act of abortion continues to take place in many states. Abortion is contrary to the Will and Law of God. Our good Lord gives human life to each individual human person, beginning at conception. Only God has the right and authority to determine the timing of death for a human person.

The practice of abortion in our country and our world places our society and culture against God and His plan for the human family. In light of this reality, we are called to lend our voice to our unborn brothers and sisters and to all in our world whose lives are rejected and not loved. Let us pray for healing in our country!

Finally, let us especially remember those who have been wounded by abortion: aborted children, mothers and fathers who have chosen abortion, and all of us in the world, as one person's sin affects all of us. Our good Lord's mercy seeks to heal the wounds of abortion, especially those who have been most affected by abortion. Jesus desires that we all work with Him to help hearts receive His love and mercy after abortion. He desires to forgive and heal - which will stop the cycle of misery and death that surrounds abortion. I include this week a collection of quotes from various Catholic sources about the dignity of human life:

The Necessity for all to have concern for the Right to Life - St. John Paul II

The Gospel of Life is not for believers alone: it is for everyone. The issue of life and its defense and promotion is not a concern of the Christian alone. Although faith provides special light and strength, this question arises in every human conscience which seeks the truth and which cares about the future of humanity. Life certainly has a sacred and religious value, but in no way is that value a concern only of believers. The value at stake is one which every human being can grasp by the light of reason; thus it necessarily concerns everyone.¹

On the Fundamental Right to Life - Pope Benedict XVI:

God's love does not differentiate between the newly conceived infant still in his or her mother's womb and the child or young person, or the adult and the elderly person. God does not distinguish between them because he sees an impression of his own image and likeness (Gn 1:26) in each one.²

[L]ife is the first good received from God and is fundamental to all others; to guarantee the right to life for all and in an equal manner for all is the duty upon which the future of humanity depends.³

The Care of the Church for unborn children - Pope Francis

Among the vulnerable for whom the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this... Precisely because this involves the internal consistency of our message about the value of the human person, the Church cannot be expected to change her position on this question... It is not 'progressive' to try to resolve problems by eliminating a human life...⁴

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

[T]he failure to protect and defend life in its most vulnerable stages renders suspect any claims to the 'rightness' of positions in other matters affecting the poorest and least powerful of the human community. If we understand the human person as the "temple of the Holy Spirit" – the living house of God – then these latter issues fall logically into place as the crossbeams and walls of that house. All direct attacks on innocent human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, strike at the house's foundation. These directly and immediately violate the human person's most fundamental right – the right to life. Neglect of these issues is the equivalent of building our house on sand. Such attacks cannot help but lull the social conscience in ways ultimately destructive of other human rights.⁵

Abortion - Pope Benedict XVI:

Children truly are the family's greatest treasure and most precious good. Consequently, everyone must be helped to become aware of the intrinsic evil of the crime of abortion. In attacking human life in its very first stages, it is also an aggression against society itself. Politicians and legislators, therefore, as servants of the common good, are duty bound to defend the fundamental right to life, the fruit of God's love.⁶

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

Among important issues involving the dignity of human life with which the Church is concerned, abortion necessarily plays a central role. Abortion, the direct killing of an innocent human being, is always gravely immoral (The Gospel of Life, no. 57); its victims are the most vulnerable and defenseless members of the human family. It is imperative that those who are called to serve the least (continued on page 3)

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“The sweet Name of Jesus produces in us holy thoughts, fills the soul with noble sentiments, strengthens virtue, begets good works, and nourishes pure affection. All spiritual food leaves the soul dry, if it contain not that penetrating oil, the Name Jesus.” St. Bernard of Clairvaux

“If thou art bound down by sickness, if sorrows weary thee, if thou art trembling with fear, invoke the name of Jesus.” St. Lawrence Justinian
“Are you troubled? Think but of Jesus - speak but the Name of Jesus, the clouds disperse and peace descends anew from Heaven. Have you fallen into sin? So that you fear death? ...invoke the Name of Jesus and you will soon feel life returning. No obduracy of the soul, no weakness, no coldness of heart can resist this Holy Name - there is no heart which will not soften and open in tears at this Holy Name.” St. Bernard of Clairvaux

“The Name of Jesus is the glory of preachers because the shining splendor of that Name causes His Word to be proclaimed and heard. And how do you think such an immense, sudden and dazzling light of faith came into the world, if not because Jesus was preached? Was it not through the brilliance and sweet savor of this Name that God called us into His marvelous Light?” St. Bernardine of Siena

PRO-LIFE QUOTES: “Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person – among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.” Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270

Parents, are you ready for Tax Day?

The Minnesota Catholic Conference is excited to remind you about the New Minnesota Child Tax Credit. Getting money back to our Minnesota families through this tax credit was an integral goal achieved by the Catholic Conference's Families First Project last year. The credit encourages and supports strong families by providing a tax break to eligible families.

It's as simple as filing a tax return, claiming the tax credit benefits, and receiving cash back.

To ensure you don't miss out, visit www.FamiliesFirstProject.com/CTC where you can learn more about the child tax credit and access additional resources. Tell every parent you know to file their taxes to receive this credit. Together we will support and strengthen the families in our community.

(From Father Kasel ... from page 1) among us give urgent attention and priority to this issue of justice.⁷

In Vitro Fertilization - U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

What is wrong with in vitro fertilization (IVF)? IVF is a reproductive technology in which a new human being is conceived by joining egg and sperm in a glass dish, not in the mother's body ("in vitro" is Latin for "in glass"). It further depersonalizes the act of generating a child, turning it into a technical process in a laboratory. This procedure is so far from a loving act of the spouses that it can even be used to conceive a child if neither of them is alive, for the body of neither one is involved in the act of generating this life once sperm and egg are obtained and stored. Because these embryos are deliberately created not in the nurturing environment of the mother's body but in the poor substitute of a culture in a glass dish, the great majority of them die. Many couples have exhausted their savings and ultimately abandoned their efforts without ever having a live-born child from IVF.⁸

Embryonic Stem Cell Research - U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

We must help those who are suffering, but we may not use a good end to justify an evil means. Moreover, treatments that do not require destroying any human life are at least as promising – they are already healing some conditions, and are far closer to healing other conditions than any approach using embryonic stem cells. The choice is not between science and ethics, but between science that is ethically responsible and science that is not.⁹

Euthanasia & Assisted Suicide - Pope Benedict XVI:

The freedom to kill is not true freedom, but a tyranny that reduces the human being to slavery.¹⁰

More and more lonely elderly people exist in big cities, even in situations of serious illness and close to death. In such situations, the pressure of euthanasia is felt, especially when a utilitarian vision of the person creeps in. In this regard, I take this opportunity to reaffirm once again the firm and constant ethical condemnation of every form of direct euthanasia, in accordance with the Church's centuries-old teaching.¹¹

Marta will talk about her childhood in Cuba and the consequences to her family and their Catholic Faith when Communism took over in Cuba before their immigration to America. The Holy Face is a method of spiritual warfare to defeat Communism, which is anti-human, anti-family, anti-God and anti-religion and most expressly, against the Catholic Church. Union with Jesus

"It seems to me that all is loss since I have known the excellent knowledge of my Lord Jesus Christ. For love of Him I have forfeited everything. I have accounted all else rubbish that I may gain Christ. What I want is to know Him, to share in His sufferings, to become like Him in His death. I pursue my course striving to attain what He has destined for me by taking hold of me. My whole concern is to forget what is behind and to strain forward constantly to what is ahead. I run straight to the goal, to the vocation to which God has called me in Christ Jesus (cf. Phil 3:8-14). That is: I want only to be identified with Him: To me life is Christ (Phil 1:21).

All the intensity of Saint Paul is poured out in these lines. [May we become] more like our adored Master, and even more, to become so one with Him that we may say: I live, no longer I, but He lives in me. And the life that I now live in this body of death, I live by Faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me (Gal 2:20). Let us study this Divine Model. His knowledge, the Apostle tells us, is so excellent. And when He first came into the world, what did He say? You no longer delight in holocausts; so I have assumed a body and I come, O God, to do Your Will (Heb 10:5-7). During the thirty-three years of His life this will became so completely His daily bread that at the moment of handing over His Soul into His Father's Hands, He could say to Him: "All is accomplished, yes, all Your desires, all have been realized, that is why I have glorified You on earth." When Jesus Christ spoke to His Apostles of the food that they did not know, He explained to them that it was to do the Will of Him who sent Me. All He could say: I am never alone. He who sent Me is always with Me because I always do the things that are pleasing to Him.

Let us lovingly eat this bread of the Will of God. If sometimes His Will is more crucifying, we can doubtless say with our adored Master: Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass Me by, but we will add immediately: Yet not as I will, but as You Will. And in strength and serenity, with the Divine Crucified, we will also climb our Calvary singing in the depths of our hearts and raising a hymn of thanksgiving to the Father. For those who march on this way of sorrow are those whom He foreknew and predestined to be conformed to the Image of His Divine Son (Rom 8:29), the One crucified by love!" St. Elizabeth of the Trinity († 1906) was a French Carmelite nun whose writings focused on the indwelling of the Trinity.

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

Euthanasia and assisted suicide can appear a reasonable and even compassionate solution to the suffering of individuals and families struggling with illness or the dying process. Yet these are not real solutions - they do not solve human problems, but only take the lives of those most in need of unconditional love.¹²

Jesus is calling YOU... to join a small group!

"In choosing the Twelve ... we could say that Jesus formed the original Christian small group, and once again set the example by saying, 'Follow me.'" - Archbishop Hebda

Our Lord set the example of sharing and living the Faith in a small community. This Lent, see why small groups - in our Lord's time, and in our present day - are a powerful way to live our Catholic Faith in the company of other believers. Small groups will:

- grow your Faith in Jesus
- foster personal relationships,
- build community, and
- provide formation, so we all may grow as joyful missionary disciples of Christ.

JOIN A SMALL GROUP THIS LENT! More details about small groups in our parishes and how you can sign up to join will be available the weekend of January 28.
