From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brother and Sisters in Christ through Mary,

This is the time of the year that our Holy Catholic Church draws our attention to the presence of the Holy Angels in our life. September 29 is the day set aside when the entire Catholic Church will normally honor the Archangels: St. Michael, St. Gabriel and St. Raphael. October 2 is the day when the Church will honor our Guardian Angels. Let us all grow in our devotion to all members of the Nine Choirs of Holy Angels! To help us, I offer a meditation and lesson on the Angels this weekend.

“Created for Adoration

The Angels in heaven behold constantly the face of GOD (cf. Mt. 18,10). For adoration they were created, adoration is their fulfillment. They live for the magnification of GOD's glory. Their entire being and all their activities are immersed in the holiness of GOD. They are eternally one with GOD (cf. Jn 17, 21-22), enjoying a happiness absolutely beyond the comprehension of any but those who receive it. Even while they are watching over the entire creation, even while they are assisting us in our trials and battles against the forces of darkness, they never divert their face from the face of GOD. Indeed, this loving, adoring union with GOD is the source, not only of all their beatitude, but also of their love for us, and of all the grace, light and help which they communicate to us.

Models for Mankind

Most of all, we ought to learn adoration from the holy angels, for mankind too was created for the adoration and glorification of GOD. We have a harder time of it, because we cannot see GOD, because we can adore only in the obscurity of faith. The Angels, therefore, help us and teach us to pray with them: ‘Blessing, and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our GOD forever and ever!’ (Apoc 7, 12) The Angel can properly fulfill all his duties only because he does not turn his countenance away from GOD, because he remains immersed in perpetual adoration. For our own prayer we can learn these things from the example of the Angel: 1) to pray always, 2) to never withdraw our countenance from GOD, 3) to (remain) constantly in the presence of GOD.

Here is how we can pray always: 1) by remaining united with and doing GOD's will; 2) by offering up ejaculations during work, by directing our spirit to GOD, 3) by offering all our works to GOD, especially every cross and hardship.

JESUS taught His disciples that ‘they ought always to pray and not to lose heart’ (LK 18,1). Let your prayer and your work be a pleasing sacrifice before GOD; and offer it in HIM and with HIM and through HIM.

The Angels Carry our Prayers before GOD

The adoration of mankind is carried aloft by the holy Angels. Through this ministry our prayer is enhanced, strengthened and becomes more to GOD. St. Raphael speaks thus to Tobias: ‘When you prayed with tears, and buried the dead, and left your dinner standing,... I offered your prayer to the Lord’ (Tob. 12,12). In the holy liturgy we pray that the Angel might carry our prayers before GOD. The Angel not only presents our prayer, but he bears it aloft in a precious vessel. The four angels ‘fell down before the Lamb, having each a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints’ (Apoc. 5,8). The prayer of an angel is like a fire, which he holds flaming up out of the vessel of his spiritual nature. This vessel stands for the entire being of the Angel. Now into this vessel the Angel places our prayer.

The fire of our adoration burns together with the fire of the Angel: ‘Another Angel came and stood before the altar, having a golden censer: and there was given to him much incense, that he might offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the altar which is before the throne. And with the prayers of the saints there went up before GOD from the Angel's hand the smoke of the incense’ (Apoc. 8, 2-4).

In his ministry the Angel is conscientious and faithful. GOD beholds us together with our Guardian Angel as though we were one. This unity also has its specific traits. No being in heaven or on earth is better suited to our own distinct individuality than our own Guardian Angel. This is why devotion to the Guardian Angel is particularly profitable.

In him we find help and protection; he is our most beautiful complement. Our poor, stammering prayers receive their most perfect form in his adoration. In the future, whenever we pray, let us remember to invite our Guardian Angel. He will surely to pray with us and hear our prayers up to GOD, lending them some of his own splendor.

This Ministry is a Joy for the Angel

It is an enriching grace for the Angel to carry our prayers before GOD. Consider, that prayer comes forth from your heart, from that heart which GOD loves and in which He dwells. This is why the Angel so gladly carries our prayers. He feels therein the love and the presence of GOD. He rejoices to carry this fire, even though there is only a small glowing of the warmth of love therein. Mediatorship (continued on pg.4)

Higher Education Opportunities for Homeschoolers:

Saint Mary's University of Minnesota is considering offering Post-Secondary Enrollment Options (PSEO) for juniors and seniors in high school on the Rochester campus for homeschooled students. The PSEO program would provide eligible students the chance to experience college-level courses while still in high school, and the courses will be offered through a hybrid model of both in-person and online learning.

In addition, St. Mary's University is introducing a College Prep Seminar tailored specifically for homeschooling students, designed to equip students with the necessary tools and insights to navigate the transition from high school to college seamlessly, from study skills and navigating financial aid to time management.

Interest in these offerings is currently being gauged and your input would be greatly appreciated. A minimum number of students will need to be enrolled. If you have a junior or senior in your homeschooling community who might be interested in the PSEO courses or the College Prep Seminar, or if you have any questions or would like more information, please contact Molly Kroulik Bigelow - mbigelow@smumn.edu or Kim Doebbert - kdoebbert@smumn.edu.

Longing for Love, Longing for God

"The greatest longing in the spirit of man is the hunger for love. A wife looks for love from her husband, a child from its father, a servant from his master, the poor from the rich. All people hope for the favor and love of the great ones of this world and the whole world rejoices and delights in their good will.

And so every spirit must rejoice and every heart exult and be immersed in infinite joy when we hear: God so loved the world that He gave His only Son. If we desire the love of important people and take delight in their good Graces, God is the Supreme Lord of all, the King of kings and Lord of lords, the King of Infinite Power, Wisdom, Goodness, and Generosity. Christ, moreover, the Infallible Truth, assures us that this Supreme Lord loves us with a Love so great that it cannot be put into words.

The Cherubim of Glory in the Holy of Holies in God's temple gaze as if lost in wonder. It is a sign that, even to the minds of Angels, the Divine Nature is worthy of admiration. God is an astounding substance, for He is not dependent on anything else for existence, and is Eternal and Infinite; and as God's essence is, so also is His every attribute: Power, Wisdom, Goodness. God's Power, Wisdom, and Goodness are truly remarkable and beyond comprehension. But it seems to me the most incomprehensible of all God's attributes is His Love: God so loved the world that He gave His only Son. It comes as no surprise that God Loves. For God Love is a necessity, so that it is impossible for God not to Love, as impossible as it is for Him not to be, for God is Love. As impossible as it would be for the sun not to be filled with light and for fire not to be hot, so impossible it would be for God to be without Love. God is Light, and a consuming Fire, the Light of Intelligence and the Fire of Love. It is as necessary to find Love in God as it is to find Power, Wisdom, and Goodness. In the most brilliant sun we discover every degree of light and in the hottest fire every degree of heat. So in God, most perfect by Nature, is found every degree of perfection that can be found here and there in creatures. Love, moreover, is the most desirable perfection and, consequently, all things aspire to Love and hunger for Love."

ST. LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI († 1619) was minister general of the Capuchin Franciscans and a prolific preacher throughout Europe. He is a Doctor of the Church.

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their [Angels'] watchful care and intercession. 'Beside each believer stands an Angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life.' Already here on earth the Christian life shares by Faith in the blessed company of Angels and men united in God" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 336). "Our Guardian Angels are our most faithful friends, because they are with us day and night, always and everywhere. We ought often to invoke them." St. John Vianney
"When tempted, invoke your Angel. He is more eager to help you than you are to be helped. Ignore the devil and do not be afraid of him; he trembles and flees at the sight of your Guardian Angel." St. John Bosco
"How great is the dignity of souls, that each person has from birth received an Angel to protect it." St. Jerome

(from page 1) is co-natural to the Angel, and now out of his supernatural union with GOD grace also flows to man. This flowing communication of grace is a beatitude of the heavenly life. What a joy it is, to be able to bear, to channel the stream of GOD's love to another!

Let us not forget to thank the Angel for his assistance.”

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, St. Michael, St. Paul, and all the Holy Angels, may God bless our families, parishes and the whole Church!
