From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary,

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

First, I invite you to join with Catholics throughout our Archdiocese in praying the novena for purity that can be found as an insert in the bulletin this weekend. There is a great need to rediscover this holy virtue in our lives and let it be expressed by our actions: through what we say and do (and what we do not say and do).

July 16 is normally the day we would celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. However, as this date falls on a Sunday, we do not celebrate this Feast in our Liturgy. However, remembering this feast day provides us with a good opportunity to thank our good Lord for the many graces of the Brown Scapular and the love of Mary, Our Lady of Mount Carmel for each of us!

First, about the Brown Scapular: One only needs to be enrolled in the Brown Scapular once. Thereafter, one only needs to wear the Brown Scapular with loving devotion to our Blessed Mother to receive the love and protection she has promised to those who wear her Brown Scapular. Thus, if you were enrolled many years ago, perhaps just after receiving 1st Holy Communion, and now do not wear a Brown Scapular, all you need to do is to begin wearing the Scapular. If you have never been enrolled you can ask me or any priest to provide the brief ceremony for you.

Devotion to the Brown Scapular and the Holy Rosary helps the soul to be open to great graces to glorify God! I assure you, the devil hates the Brown Scapular. I encourage anyone who has been enrolled to firmly remain committed to wearing this sacramental all the time. Of course, there are times when one may remove it for a time, but with the intention of putting it back on immediately when it is time. The scapular should be worn day and night, including during exercise! You might want a couple extra around to give the one you are using a 'breather' from time to time. When a Brown Scapular you have worn wears out and can longer be used, it must either be burned (respectfully, ie, not with garbage) or buried (in your back yard or near the foundation of your home is fine). Then you can simply put on a new scapular and keep on enjoying the love and protection of the Immaculate Heart of Mary! Remember, the Brown Scapular is a devotion that is a concrete sign of our love for Mary and her love for us. Whenever you remove the Brown Scapular for any reason, I recommend that you give it a gentle kiss or offer a word of love and gratitude to our Blessed Mother. When you think of the Graces that Jesus gives us through the intercession of Mary and how simple it is to be under Mary's protection through this little garment of Grace, little gestures such as these say a great deal about the disposition of our hearts toward Jesus and Mary. I also recommend the same devotion when you put the Brown Scapular back on. It is appropriate to wear the Brown Scapular under one's clothing. However, it can also be worn as an outer garment.

As a member of the Third Order (Secular) Discalced Carmelites, the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel is a special day for me, and some of our parishioners who are in formation in the Pure Heart of St. Joseph Carmel Group in Discernment that meets at St. Michael.

I have a particular devotion to the Virgin Mary under this title and a love for Brown Scapular. I still remember the place and who enrolled me in the Brown Scapular. Sadly, as many of you may know, the practice of enrolling people in the Brown Scapular has greatly diminished. If you have not been enrolled, I encourage you to do so. It will greatly help not only your soul and those of your family, but will also help many other people as your heart will be more open to special graces from the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

I leave you today with a little more about the Brown Scapular taken from www.ewtn.com: "A Scapular is a garment worn by religious over the shoulders (scapula), and hanging down in front and back, usually to about the bottom of the habit. It developed as a practical garment, protecting the habit during work, and was in time invested with spiritual significance, consecration or dedication to God. By analogy to the Scapulars of religious, there are small Scapulars that are derived from them which represent a particular devotion or spirituality, usually associated with a particular community. Such a Scapular is two pieces of cloth (generally about an inch square), connected by cords and worn over the head. It often has a picture or a particular color, depending on the spirituality it stands for.

The best known and most highly esteemed Scapular, and the one most favored by the Church, and by the Blessed Virgin in many of Her apparitions, is the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. It is adapted from the Scapular of the Carmelite Order and represents a special Consecration to Our Lady under the title of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Those who wear it practice it a special devotion to Mary. In the past this was the Little Office of Our Lady, (continued on page 4)

The next Holy Hour for Women will be Sunday, July 23, at 6pm at the Church of St. Michael, Pine Island. All women are invited!

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) but today this can be commuted by any priest to the Rosary. In addition, the person has a special entrustment of themselves to Mary for their salvation. This, in fact, has been promised to those who faithfully wear the Scapular: 'Those who die wearing this Scapular shall not suffer eternal fire.' This must not be understood superstitiously or magically, but in light of Catholic teaching that perseverance in faith, hope and love are required for salvation. The Scapular is a powerful reminder of this Christian obligation and of Mary's promise to help those consecrated to Her obtain the grace of final perseverance." (some excerpts from www.ewtn.com)
 Through the intercession of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, St. Joseph, and our patrons St. Paul, and St. Michael, may God bless you, your families and our parishes!
 In Christ through Mary,

PRO LIFE QUOTES:

"...while there are many issues the Catholic must consider in forming moral judgments, 'Abortion is different. It is always intrinsically evil. There are no circumstances that justify abortion. Its victims are innocent and defenseless, and number in the millions. Abortion is the fallacious foundation upon which the culture of death builds its ugly edifice.'" Bishop Thomas Tobin, Bishop of the Diocese of Providence, Rhode Island
 "All who are genuinely committed to the advancement of women can and must offer a woman or a girl who is pregnant, frightened, and alone a better alternative than the destruction of her own unborn child" ~ Mary Ann Glendon, 4th World Conference on Women, Beijing, Sept. 5, 1995
