From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

In a few days is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. I encourage all of our parishioners to attend Holy Mass on Ash Wednesday. Please see elsewhere in this bulletin for the full schedule of Holy Masses. Plan now to begin Lent with Our Lord at Holy Mass!

With the beginning of Lent our attention also turns to penances or sacrifices. Let us be determined in our efforts to make time for Jesus in prayer and be bold in our acts of Charity! First, I encourage all of us to pick some practices to give up or to do. The usual practices, like giving up dessert, candy, pop or television can be good. However, asking for Grace from our good Lord to change a bad habit in our relationship with Him and others may be much better. We can also think of other possibilities. A penance does not have to be something we give up. It could also be something we add to our daily life. We could add such things as: more acts of kindness in word or deed for one's spouse, children, or siblings; choosing to forgive and let go of a grudge; ask for forgiveness from someone; visit relatives in the nursing home; call your parents more often; pray for patience and try to practice it more readily; pray for those who annoy you; thank God for His blessings each day; increase prayer time and do so with greater love for God in the morning, afternoon and night. Here are a few more ideas that would bear great spiritual fruit: monthly confession; attend daily Holy Mass; daily family Rosary; daily Chaplet of Mercy; weekly Stations of the Cross; spending time with Jesus in Adoration of the Eucharist; praying the Liturgy of the Hours; praying with Sacred Scripture; 15 minutes of quiet prayer talking with Jesus and listening to Him; a prayerful walk; talking with a spiritual director; signing up to our FORMED online Catholic website and digging into some of the great resources; or reading a good spiritual book - I recommend the Diary of St. Faustina and the autobiography of St. Therese called Story of a Soul.

Here is what our Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches us on the practice of penance:

"The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in many and various ways. Scripture and the Fathers insist above all on three forms, fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others. Alongside the radical purification brought about by Baptism or martyrdom they cite as means of obtaining forgiveness of sins: effort at reconciliation with one's neighbor, tears of repentance, concern for the salvation of one's neighbor, the intercession of the Saints, and the practice of Charity 'which covers a multitude of sins.' Conversion is accomplished in daily life by gestures of reconciliation, concern for the poor, the exercise and defense of justice and right, by the admission of faults to one's brethren, fraternal correction, revision of life, examination of conscience, spiritual direction, acceptance of suffering, endurance of persecution for the sake of righteousness. Taking up one's cross each day and following Jesus is the surest way of penance.

Church of Saint Michael - Saturday Confessions at 4:00pm, Rosary at 4:35pm, Mass at 5:00pm

Church of Saint Michael - Sunday Mass at 7:00am, Rosary at 10:05am, Mass at 10:30am

WEEKDAY HOLY MASS SCHEDULE

Church of Saint Paul - Tuesday and Thursday Confession 8am & Mass 8:30am, Rosary at 8:10am before Mass

Church of Saint Michael - Wednesday and Friday Confession 8am and Mass 8:30am

Daily conversion and penance find their source and nourishment in the Eucharist, for in it is made present the Sacrifice of Christ which has reconciled us with God. Through the Eucharist those who live from the Life of Christ are fed and strengthened. 'It is a remedy to free us from our daily faults and to preserve us from mortal sins.' Reading Sacred Scripture, praying the Liturgy of the Hours and the Our Father - every sincere act of worship or devotion revives the spirit of conversion and repentance within us and contributes to the forgiveness of our sins. The seasons and days of penance in the course of the liturgical year (Lent, and each Friday in memory of the death of the Lord) are intense moments of the Church's penitential practice. These times are particularly appropriate for spiritual exercises, penitential liturgies, pilgrimages as signs of penance, voluntary self-denial such as fasting and almsgiving. (continued on page 4)

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"No one will have any other desire in Heaven than what God wills; and the desire of one will be the desire of all; and the desire of all and of each one will also be the desire of God." St. Anselm
"Faith in action is Love, and Love in action is service. By transforming that Faith into living acts of Love, we put ourselves in contact with God Himself, with Jesus our Lord." St. Mother Teresa
"Jesus Christ, Lord of all things! You see my heart, you know my desires. Possess all that I am - you alone. I am your sheep; make me worthy to overcome the devil." St. Agatha
"He who trusts in himself is lost. He who trusts in God can do all things... What does it cost us to say, 'My God help me! Have mercy on me!' Is there anything easier than this? And this little will suffice to save us if we be diligent in doing it." St. Alphonsus Liguori

"At His Transfiguration Christ showed His disciples the splendor of His beauty, to which He will shape and color those who are His: 'He will reform our lowliness configured to the body of His glory.'" St. Thomas Aquinas

Prayer for Priests

by St. Therese of Lisieux, Carmelite
O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep Your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsoiled their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the Priesthood. Let Your holy Love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in Heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

Baskets/Items for St. Patrick's Ham Dinner SILENT AUCTION

Calling all parishioners! We are looking for silent auction baskets and items for our silent auction fundraiser held during St. Patrick's Ham Dinner. Any type of "baskets" that you like or individual items, including religious items, gift cards/certificates, homemade or purchased items will be appreciated. Please drop off any items at the parish office. Thank you for your generosity.

Why We Fast

I think that this is the reason for fasting - that since the first Adam, when he was in Paradise, had forfeited the glory of immortality through his gluttonous intemperance, Christ, the second Adam, might restore the same immortality through His abstinence. And now, because he had incurred the sin of death by going against the commands of God and tasting of the forbidden tree, the Lord in His fasting, in conformity with the commandment, might merit the righteousness of life... For this reason He wished to be born according to the likeness of Adam in every respect, so that in the likeness of Adam He might destroy all the sins of humanity. For Adam was born of the virgin earth and Christ was begotten of the Virgin Mary... Adam is formed from mire by the hands of God, while Christ is formed in the womb by the Spirit of God. Each comes forth with God as Father, then; each has a virgin for mother; each, as the Evangelist says, is a son of God, but Adam is a creature and Christ is a Son in substance...

In the desert the Savior fulfills the command of God, so that He might save the wandering Adam in the very place where he had been dispossessed of paradise. Adam, when he was cast out of paradise, endured the desert places of a harsh world. It is in the desert, then, that salvation is first restored to mankind - there where there are no rich foods, where there are no pleasures... In paradise the devil contends with Adam, and in the desert the devil struggles with Christ... The very body of the Christian is in a sense a desert when it is not filled with food and cheered with drink... Then Christ the Lord inhabits the desert of our body - when He has found that our land is desolate because of hunger and parched because of thirst. Then the Savior dwelling in this desert of our body overcomes there all the factions of the devil, and safe and secure from the thoughts of this world He takes it for His habitation, so that from then on we might see Heaven and earth within ourselves... That is to say, we might think of nothing other than the Lord of the Heavenly Kingdom and the Author of earthly Resurrection. St. Maximus of Turin (St. Maximus († c. 465) was the first Bishop of Turin, Italy.)

ARCHDIOCESAN EVANGELIZATION PRAYER

Holy Spirit, renew your wonders in our time, as though in a new Pentecost, and grant that this Archdiocese, united in prayer around Mary, the Mother of Jesus, and guided by St. Peter, may spread the Kingdom of the divine Savior, a Kingdom of truth, of justice, of love, and of peace. Amen. Saint Paul, our great missionary patron, pray for us!

Give the gift of an Hour of Adoration for someone. Cards are in the vestibule to send to the recipient.

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) and fraternal sharing (charitable and missionary works). The process of conversion and repentance was described by Jesus in the parable of the prodigal son, the center of which is the merciful father: The fascination of illusory freedom, the abandonment of the father's house; the extreme misery in which the son finds himself after squandering his fortune; his deep humiliation at finding himself obliged to feed swine, and still worse, at wanting to feed on the husks the pigs ate; his reflection on all he has lost; his repentance and decision to declare himself guilty before his father; the journey back; the father's generous welcome; the father's joy - all these are characteristic of the process of conversion. The beautiful robe, the ring, and the festive banquet are symbols of that new life - pure, worthy, and joyful - of anyone who returns to God and to the bosom of His Family, which is the Church. Only the heart of Christ Who knows the depths of His Father's Love could reveal to us the abyss of His Mercy in so simple and beautiful a way." (CCC 1434-1439)

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph and our patrons, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God bless you, your families and our parishes this Lent!

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Kasel
