From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This Sunday, many of our youth will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral of St. Paul! Let us pray for all our Confirmation candidates receiving this Sacrament this year, that our Heavenly Father, in the Name of His Son, Jesus, may abundantly bestow the life and grace of the Holy Spirit upon them! Let us pray our good Lord will renew the Life and Love of the Holy Spirit within each of us!

As we continue into the month of May, the month of our Blessed Mother, the Virgin Mary, let us continue to strive to grow closer to her Immaculate Heart!

One of the best ways to be close to Mary is through praying the Rosary! This week I share with you a meditation on the Rosary and urge you to pray the Rosary each day! I encourage you to reflect over this message a few times this week:

“The Rosary: In the Rosary our Lady teaches us to contemplate the life of her Son.

Love for our Lady is shown in our life in many different ways. The Holy Rosary has been the Marian prayer most recommended by the Church down through the ages. In it, piety gives us a summary of the principal Truths of the Christian Faith; as we consider each of the mysteries, our Lady teaches us to contemplate the life of her Son. She, intimately united to Jesus, at times takes first place; other times, it is Christ Himself who is the first to attract our attention. Mary always talks to us about Jesus: of the joy of His birth, of His death on the Cross, and of His glorious Resurrection and Ascension. The Rosary is our Mother’s favorite prayer. To say the Holy Rosary, considering the mysteries, repeating the ‘Our Father’ and ‘Hail Mary’, with the praises to the Blessed Trinity and the constant invocation of the Mother of God, is a continuous act of Faith, Hope and Love, of adoration and reparation. (J. Escriva, Holy Rosary, Preface)

Etymologically, the Rosary is a crown of roses, a delightful custom which among all peoples represents an offering of love and a symbol of joy. (Pius XII, Address, 16 October 1940) It is the most excellent means of meditated prayer, constituted in the manner of a mystical crown, in which the angelic salutation, the Lord’s Prayer and the doxology to the August Trinity are intertwined with the consideration of the highest mysteries of our Faith. In it, by means of many scenes, the mind contemplates the drama of the Incarnation and of the Redemption of our Lord. (John XXIII, Encyclical, Grata Recordatio, 26 September 1959)

In this Marian prayer, vocal prayer is combined with the meditation of the Christian mysteries, which is as it were the soul of the Rosary. Thanks to this unhurried meditation it is possible for all to say the same words, while at the same time each one can do his or her own personal prayer. To imagine oneself as a participant in the scenes being considered helps one to say it well. In this way, we shall live the life of Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

Each day we shall do something new for them. We shall hear their family conversation. We shall see the Messiah grow up. We shall

Church of Saint Michael - Wednesday and Friday

Confession 8am and Mass 8:30am

admire His thirty years of hidden life... We shall be present at His Passion and Death... We shall be amazed at the glory of His resurrection... In a word: carried away by Love (the only real love is Love), we shall contemplate each and every moment of the life of Christ. (J. Escriva, op. cit., p. 9)

In considering the mysteries, vocal prayer - the Our Fathers and the Hail Marys - comes to life; our interior life is enriched with deep content, which becomes a source of prayer and contemplation throughout the day. Little by little, it identifies us with Christ’s feelings and enables us to live in a climate of intense devotion: we rejoice with Christ joyful, we suffer with Christ suffering, and we look forward in hope to the glory of Christ Risen. Pope Paul VI said that the liturgy and the Rosary, although existing on essentially different planes of reality, have as their object the same salvific events wrought by Christ. The former presents anew, under the veil of signs and operative in a hidden way, the great mysteries of our redemption. The latter, by means of devout contemplation, recalls these same mysteries to the mind of the person praying and stimulates the will to draw from them the norms of living. (Paul VI, Marialis Cultus, 48)

Last Call! MN Catholic Land Movement Conference

It's not too late to register for our upcoming Catholic Land Movement Conference on Saturday, May 24! We have a good number already registered but we still have room for more. Unable to register ahead of time? No worries! We are happy to accommodate walk-ins the day of the event. The event promises to be a lot of fun, so join us in prayer for its success and for good weather! Today is the feast day of St. Isidore the farmer, patron of the Catholic Land Movement! So along with Sts. Mary, Joseph, the Holy Family, Michael the Archangel, Bruno, Dominic and Francis, we ask their intercession for a wonderful growing season, and a fruitful conference!

Institute of Catholic Culture Lecture Series:

SLAVES OR CITIZENS? Serving the King of Kings

Christ is King! We proclaim it because it's true. He governs all things sweetly, and invites us to partake of Him, to live in Him, and to rule and be ruled by Him. This makes us subjects and servants of the King of the Universe. Yet our obedience is also described as freedom itself. "For freedom Christ has set us free." (Gal 5:1) This lecture will investigate how Catholic teaching transforms the very notion of freedom, and in doing so, transforms how we see duties, obligations and rights. We'll examine how the idea of heavenly citizenship transforms how Catholics understand their political commitments on earth. We'll arrive at a deeper understanding of Pope Leo XIII's view, that the Church always produces, in every place, "the best citizens," precisely because we proclaim that Christ is King!

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." 1 Peter 2:9

The Goodness of Divine Love

"A new commandment I give you, that you love one another. This commandment that He is giving them is a new one, the Lord Jesus tells His disciples. Yet was it not contained in the Old Law, where it is written: You shall love your neighbor as yourself? Why does the Lord call it new when it is clearly so old? Or is the commandment new because it divests us of our former selves and clothes us with the new man? Love does indeed renew the man who hears, or rather obeys its command; but only that Love which Jesus distinguished from a natural love by the qualification: As I have loved you.

This is the kind of Love that renews us. When we Love as He Loved us we become new men, heirs of the new covenant and singers of the new song. My brothers, this was the Love that even in bygone days renewed the holy men, the patriarchs and prophets of old. In later times it renewed the blessed Apostles, and now it is the turn of the Gentiles. From the entire human race throughout the world this Love gathers together into one body a new people, to be the bride of God's only Son. She is the bride of whom it is asked in the Song of Songs: Who is this who comes clothed in white? White indeed are her garments, for she has been made new; and the source of her renewal is none other than this new commandment.

And so all her members make each other's welfare their common care. When one member suffers, all the members suffer with him, and if one member is glorified all the rest rejoice. They hear and obey the Lord's words: A new commandment I give you, that you Love one another; not as men love one another for their own selfish ends, nor merely on account of their common humanity, but because they are all gods and sons of the Most High. They Love one another as God Loves them so that they may be brothers of His only Son. He will lead them to the goal that alone will satisfy them, where all their desires will be fulfilled. For when God is all in all, there will be nothing left to desire.

This Love is the Gift of the Lord who said: As I have Loved you, you also must love one another. His object in Loving us, then, was to enable us to Love each other. By Loving us Himself, our mighty Head has linked us all together as members of His own Body, bound to one another by the tender bond of Love." (From a treatise on John by Saint Augustine, Bishop)

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life: Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life." ## WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"Satan, being proud, suffers infinitely more from being beaten and punished by a little and humble handmaid of God, and her humility humbles him more than the Divine power; and, secondly, because God has given Mary such a great power against the devils, that, as they have often been obliged to confess, in spite of themselves, by the mouths of the possessed, they fear one of her sighs for a soul more than the prayers of all the Saints, and one of her menaces against them more than all other torments." St. Louis Marie de Monfort
 "You must know that when you 'hail' Mary, she immediately greets you! Don't think that she is one of those rude women of whom there are so many - on the contrary, she is utterly courteous and pleasant. If you greet her, she will answer you right away and converse with you!" St. Bernardine of Siena

"If God did not destroy man after his first sin, it was on account of His singular Love for this holy Virgin, who was destined to be born of this race. I have no doubt but that all the mercies granted by God under the old dispensation were granted only in consideration of this most Blessed Lady" St. Bernardine of Siena

"O Blessed Mary, whoever loves you honors God; whoever serves you pleases God; whoever invokes your Holy Name with a pure heart will infallibly receive the object of his petition." St. Bernard of Clairveaux

"As breathing is not only a sign but even a cause of life, so the Name of Mary, which is constantly found on the lips of God's servants, both proves that they are truly alive, and at the same time causes and preserves their life, and gives them every succor." St. Bernard of Clairveaux

"Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did." St. Maximillian Kolbe
 "The conflict with Hell cannot be maintained by men, even the most clever. The Immaculata alone has from God the promise of victory over Satan. She seeks souls that will consecrate themselves entirely to her, that will become in her hands forceful instruments for the defeat of Satan and the spread of God's Kingdom." St. Maximillian Kolbe
 "My only desire is to see Mary, who has saved me and who will save me from the clutches of Satan." Blessed Bartolo Longo

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) Blessed Virgin, be generously fostered, and the practices and exercises of piety, recommended by the Magisterium of the Church towards her in the course of centuries, be highly esteemed. (Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, 67) And we are well aware of how insistently the Church has recommended saying the Rosary. It is one of the best and most efficacious prayers in common that the Christian family is invited to recite, (Paul VI, op. cit. 54) and in many cases it will be an aim of Christian life for many families. Sometimes it is enough to begin by saying just one mystery, perhaps using such signal opportunities as the month of May or a visit to a shrine or chapel of our Lady. Much has been achieved if children are taught to say it from an early age.

The family Rosary is a source of good for everyone, for it attracts God's Mercy to the home. The saying of the Angelus and of the Rosary, said St. John Paul II, must be for every Christian and even more for Christian families, like a spiritual oasis during the course of the day, from which we can get strength and confidence. (St. John Paul II, Angelus, in Otranto, 5 October 1980) And just a few days later, the Holy Father once again remarked: Guard jealously that tender and confident love for our Lady, which characterizes you. Don't ever let it get cold... Be faithful to the traditional exercises of Marian piety in the Church: the saying of the Angelus, the month of Mary, and in a special way, the Rosary. Would that there be a resurgence of that beautiful custom of praying the Rosary in the family. (St. John Paul II, Homily, 12 October 1980)

Today in our prayer we can see whether we approach the Holy Rosary as a powerful weapon (J. Escriva, op. cit., p. 5) to get from the Blessed Virgin those Graces and favors which we need so much, whether we say it with the necessary attention, whether we try to deepen in its rich content, especially stopping and meditating →

Congratulations!

A number of our parishioners recently completed a two-year Pillars program, offered by the Catechetical Institute of the St. Paul Seminary, studying the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
