From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,
Alleluia! He is Risen! Alleluia! With our parish staff, I wish all of you a very Blessed and Happy Easter! Our Easter celebration of the resurrection of Jesus from the dead is the greatest of all celebrations and the greatest of all the triumphs our Lord Jesus won for us! Also, I want to remind you that Easter Sunday is the first day of the Easter Octave, that is the eight days of Easter. The Easter Octave will conclude the evening of next Sunday - Divine Mercy Sunday. I encourage all to pray along with the Divine Mercy Novena that began this past Good Friday and concludes next Saturday. Also, I encourage all to attend our Divine Mercy Sunday (April 7) celebration that will be at the Church of St. Michael in Pine Island from 1 - 4pm. More details regarding our celebration are listed in this bulletin.

This week I include in our bulletin a beautiful Easter homily by an ancient author.
"Saint Paul rejoices in the knowledge that spiritual health has been restored to the human race. Death entered the world through Adam, he explains, but life has been given back to the world through Christ. Again he says: The first man, being from the earth, is earthly by nature; the Second Man is from Heaven and it is Heavenly. As we have borne the image of the earthly man, the image of human nature grown old in sin, so let us bear the image of the Heavenly Man: human nature raised up, redeemed, restored and purified in Christ. We must hold fast to the salvation we have received. Christ was the first fruits, says the Apostle; He is the source of resurrection and life. Those who belong to Christ will follow Him. Modeling their lives on His purity, they will be secure in the hope of His resurrection and of enjoying with Him the glory promised in Heaven. Our Lord Himself said so in the Gospel: Whoever follows Me will not perish, but will pass from death to life.

Thus the passion of our Savior is the salvation of mankind. The reason why He desired to die for us was that He wanted us who believe in Him to live forever. In the fullness of time it was His Will to become what we are, so that we might inherit the eternity He promised and live with Him forever.

Here, then, is the Grace conferred by these heavenly mysteries, the gift which Easter brings, the most longed for feast of the year; here are the beginnings of creatures newly formed: children born from the life giving font of holy Church, born anew with the simplicity of little ones, and crying out with the evidence of a clean conscience. Chaste fathers and inviolate mothers accompany this new family, countless in number, born to new life through Faith. As they emerge from the Grace giving womb of the font, a blaze of candles burns brightly beneath the tree of Faith. The Easter festival brings the Grace of holiness from Heaven to men. Through the repeated celebration of the sacred mysteries they receive the spiritual nourishment of the sacraments. Fostered at the very heart of holy Church, the fellowship of one community worships the one God, adoring the triple Name of His essential holiness, and together with the prophet sings the psalm which belongs to this yearly festival: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. And what is this day? It is the Lord

Jesus Christ Himself, the author of light, who brings the sunrise and the beginning of life, saying of Himself: I am the light of day; whoever walks in daylight does not stumble. That is to say, whoever follows Christ in all things will come by this path to the throne of eternal light. Such was the prayer Christ made to the Father while He was still on earth: Father, I desire that where I am they also may be, those who have come to believe in Me; and that as You are in Me and I in You, so they may abide in Us."

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of our Redeemer, St. Joseph, Spouse of the Virgin Mary and Foster Father of our Redeemer, St. Paul and St. Michael, may our good Lord Jesus grant us the fullness of Easter joy and peace!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

“Given the breakdown in family life, the wholesale attack on innocent and defenseless human lives, and the violation of the integrity of the union of marriage in our society, the call to the martyrdom of witness is ever more urgent.” -Cardinal Burke, The Fall of the Christian West, March 11, 2011

“Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person – among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.” Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“Christ greeted His Mother, saying: ‘Peace be with you.’ The Virgin fell to her knees and weeping abundantly for joy adored Him, kissing His hands and feet saying: ‘O blessed wounds, which have given me such pain on Good Friday.’ Christ, kissing His Mother, said: ‘My Mother, rejoice, because from now on, you will have nothing but joy and celebration.’ Drying her tears, He sat down on the chair, and they spoke with each other very sweetly. Oh, if only someone could have been present to this exchange! The Virgin said to her Son, ‘Son, I am used to celebrating a Feast on the Sabbath [Saturday], signifying [God's] rest from the creation of the world, but from now on I celebrate a feast on Sunday, in memory of Your Resurrection, and Rest and Glory.’ It pleased Christ.” St. Vincent Ferrer

“May she [Mary], who at the Announcement of the Angel welcomed Jesus, the ‘Gospel of life,’ into her womb and was filled with exultation at the moment of His Resurrection, obtain for us to be witnesses of the Risen Christ in the world, messengers of His Joy, communicators of His Love.” St. John Paul II

“At the side of each of you there will always be Mary, as she was present among the apostles, frightened and confused at the time of trial. And with her Faith she will show you, beyond the night of the world, the glorious dawn of the Resurrection.” St. John Paul II

“The Lord's triumph, on the day of the Resurrection, is final. Where are the soldiers the rulers posted there? Where are the seals that were fixed to the stone of the tomb? Where are those who condemned the Master? Where are those who crucified Jesus? He is victorious, and faced with His Victory those poor wretches have all taken flight. Be filled with Hope: Jesus Christ is always victorious.” St. Josemarie Escriva

“Yes, Christ is truly risen, and we are witnesses of this. We proclaim this witness to the world, so that the joy which is ours will reach countless other hearts, kindling in them the light of the hope which does not disappoint.” St. John Paul II

The Holy Face of Jesus Relic & Devotion—April 7:

Speaker and author, Vicki Schreiner, travels throughout the U.S. to share her family's Holy Face of Jesus relic and teach this beautiful devotion. Learn about the history, people, places, and events that took place for this devotion to finally become a reality as our Lord desired.

Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to venerate an actual Holy Face of Jesus relic, verified authentic by the Vatican (Pope St. Pius X in 1905). The Certificate of Authenticity verifies that it has been touched to the instruments of our Lord's Passion, the Veil of Veronica, the Wood of the Cross, and the Lance that pierced Christ's side.

Vicki will speak on Sunday, April 7, (Divine Mercy Sunday) at the Church of St. Michael in Pine Island, from 1:00 p.m. to 1:45 pm. Fr. Kasel will speak from 1:45-2:00pm on Divine Mercy. Adoration, Chapel, Rosary, and Confession will be offered. Vicki will also have Holy Face pictures, pamphlets, chaplets, prayer cards, crosses, medals, and her new book, Chronology of the Holy Face Devotion, available to purchase.
