From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The month of March is dedicated to devotion to St. Joseph. Let us ask St. Joseph to defend and help us on our path toward Heaven and to grant us a love for Jesus and Mary like he has in his heart! This Sunday we celebrate the 4th Sunday of Lent. On this final Sunday of March, I share with you a reflection on St. Joseph. I encourage you to reflect over this message a few times this week:

“The promises of the Old Testament were realized in Jesus by means of St. Joseph: The Lord has put His faithful servant in charge of His household. (Entrance Antiphon: Luke 12:42) The household referred to in Entrance Antiphon for the Solemnity of St. Joseph is none other than the Holy Family of Nazareth. God entrusted this treasure to St. Joseph, His faithful servant, who dedicated his entire life to their care. The Lord’s household also can be understood as the Church, which likewise looks to Saint Joseph as a guardian and patron...

With the Incarnation, the ‘promises’ and ‘figures’ of the Old Testament become reality: places, persons, events and rites interrelate according to precise divine commands communicated by Angels and received by creatures who are particularly sensitive to the voice of God. Mary is the Lord’s humble servant, prepared from eternity for the task of being the Mother of God. Joseph is the one... who has the responsibility of looking after the Son of God’s ‘ordained’ entry into the world in accordance with divine dispositions and human laws. All of the so-called ‘private’ or ‘hidden’ life of Jesus is entrusted to Joseph’s guardianship. (John Paul II, Apostolic Exhortation, Redemptoris Custos, 15 August 1989, 8)

St. Joseph is the Patriarch of the New Testament. Here was an ordinary man to whom God granted extraordinary Graces. St. Joseph was to fulfill a most singular mission in the salvific design of God. He experienced indescribable joys along with the trials of doubt and suffering. We recall his perplexity at the mystery of Mary’s Conception (of Jesus), at the extreme of material poverty in Bethlehem, at the prophecies of Simeon in the Temple, at the hurried flight into Egypt, at the difficulties of having to live in a foreign land, at the return from Egypt and the threat posed by Archelaus. St. Joseph proved himself always faithful to the Will of God. He showed himself always ready to set aside his own human plans and considerations.

The explanation for this remarkable fidelity is that Jesus and Mary were at the center of St. Joseph’s life. Joseph’s self-giving is an interweaving of faithful love, loving Faith and confident Hope. His feast is thus a good opportunity for us to renew our commitment to the Christian calling God has given each of us.

When you sincerely desire to live by Faith, Hope and Love, the renewal of your commitment is not a matter of picking up again something neglected. When there really is Faith, Hope and Love, renewal means staying in God’s hands, despite our personal faults, mistakes and defects. It is a confirmation of our faithfulness. Renewing our commitment means renewing our fidelity to what God wants of us: it means expressing our love in deeds. (J. Escriva, Christ is Passing By, 43)

Questions regarding the Kitui Partnership may be directed to the parish office. Thank you, ahead of time, for any contributions you are able to make!

Catholic Services Appeal for 2025: Giving is Faith in Action!

It is such a great reminder of what the Lord has done and calls us to do. Your continued generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. The way the Lord gave of Himself for us is a great reminder that we are united as one Church that when we come together and support our ministries we can do so much good. Each of us has benefited from our ministries.

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"Start being brave about everything, driving out darkness and spreading light as well. Don't look at your weakness, but realize that in Christ crucified you can do everything." St. Catherine of Siena

"Do not lose heart, even if you should discover that you lack qualities necessary for the work to which you are called. He who called you will not desert you, but the moment you are in need he will stretch out his saving hand." St. Angela Merici

"What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see the misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like." St. Augustine

"God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." St. Augustine

"Nowhere other than looking at himself in the mirror of the Cross can man better understand how much he is worth." St. Anthony of Padua

"Christians must lean on the Cross of Christ just as travelers lean on a staff when they begin a long journey. They must have the Passion of Christ deeply embedded in their minds and hearts, because only from it can they derive Peace, Grace, and Truth." St. Anthony of Padua

"Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak." St. Anthony of Padua

The Love of Jesus: Our True Happiness

"Go and sin no more." This is what Jesus says to me every time I go to confession. How great is the goodness of heart of my Beloved, and I wish to respond to His delicacy towards me with a pure soul and the heart of an angel!

These words of our Lord touch me to the quick. How delicate is the Heart of Jesus. Such love and such tenderness could proceed only from God!

I undertake, O my Jesus, to sin no more. At your feet in the Sacrament of Penance, I, a penitent sinner, will humbly implore your infinite Mercy. I will be direct and open, and will ask you unceasingly for that grace, which is so uncommon, to walk straight before the Lord...

You have the words of Eternal Life, and I will listen to no other voice but Yours, Jesus, the God of my soul! Only You, O my Jesus, Life of my life, speak to my heart. O divine Speech, O beloved Word! O beloved Host! O my Jesus meek and humble of Heart. Speak to my heart and calm the storms which agitate it. Say but a word, and peace will return to it. Speak, my Lord, speak; your poor servant listens to You, one word from You and my soul shall be saved. To whom shall I go, Life of my life, if not to You who are Life Eternal?

When my soul is sad and weary through desolation and abandonment, where shall I find refreshment, and peace, if not in Your most Precious Blood, which rejoices the soul by the visits of Its Grace. When I am overcome with weakness and discouragement, when temptations surround me on every side, to whom shall I have recourse, but to Him who is consolation and strength itself? And when my soul is flooded and filled with consolation, and peace and happiness reign in my heart, to whom shall I go, if not to You, O my Jesus, that I may share my joy and happiness with You. On every occasion, O my Beloved, it is to You that I wish to go; it is upon Your most loving Heart that I wish to lean, both now and through eternity." Blessed Concepcion Cabrera de Armida (Blessed Concepcion (+1937), also known as 'Conchita', was a wife, mother, widow and mystic. She was the first Mexican laywoman to be beatified.)

40 Days for Life Prayers to End Abortion: March 5 - April 13.

This prayer campaign is on the sidewalk in front of Planned Parenthood at 1212 7th Street NW, Rochester. 40 Days for Life is a Christian organization that takes a peaceful, prayerful approach to this controversial issue to move hearts and minds. If you would be interested in making an appointment with God to pray for all involved in this issue, go to 40daysforlife.com/rochester to register and sign up. For more information contact Margaret Mulligan at 40daysforliferoch@gmail.com.

Please pray daily during this campaign for the end to abortion. Suggested prayers: <https://www.usccb.org/prayers/pro-life-rosary-prayer-intentions>

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"The Gospel of Life is for the whole of human society. To be actively pro-life is to contribute to the renewal of society through the promotion of the common good." St. John Paul II

"The so-called right to abortion has portrayed the GREATEST OF GIFTS—A CHILD—as a competitor, an intrusion, and an inconvenience." St. Mother Teresa

'Oh Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of Life, we honor you as Our Lady of Guadalupe. Thank you for pointing us to Jesus your Son, the only Savior and hope of the world. Renew our hope in Him that we all may have the courage to say YES to life and to defend those children in danger of abortion. Give us your compassion to reach out to those tempted to abort and to those suffering from a past abortion. Lead us to the day when abortion will be a sad, past chapter in our history. Keep us close to Jesus, the Life of the World, who is Lord forever and ever. Amen." www.priestsforlife.org

"Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person — among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life." Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270

Church cleaning: All are welcome to join us for a spring church cleaning party on Wednesday, April 9, at 9:30am (after Holy Mass) at the Church of St. Paul. We will be washing the pews, some windows and walls, and vacuuming. We will have buckets, rags and cleaning solutions. Please bring gloves if you prefer. Thank you in advance for agreeing to help with this. Any questions contact Mary Kingsbury or the parish office.

The St Pio Knights of Columbus membership meeting will be held Wednesday, April 9, at 7pm at the Church of St. Paul, Zumbrota. All members are encouraged to attend!

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) fulfill the Will of God in everything. We pray that he will show us how to live out our commitments joyfully and without reservations. Our example will enlighten many others as to the true pathway to Heaven.

The fidelity of the Holy Patriarch to his vocation: Come, good and faithful servant! Share the joy of your Lord! (Communion Antiphon for Solemnity of St. Joseph: Matt. 25:21) St. Joseph would have heard these words of our Communion Antiphon upon his arrival in Heaven. One day the Lord will say these blessed words to each one of us if we persevere in our Christian vocation. This will happen despite our many stumbles and falls because we shall have had the humility and the courage to begin again.

Fidelity to the Lord is what gives meaning to our lives, no matter what our age or personal circumstances. We know that our earthly happiness depends upon our Faith. St. Joseph had his share of difficulties, but he always relied upon the help of God. He refused to deviate from his vocation. What else was his life if not a total dedication to the service for which he had been called? Husband to Our Lady, legal father to Jesus... He devoted his life to the attention he paid them, dedicated to fulfilling his vocation - the mission to which he had been called. As a dedicated man is one who does not belong to himself, Joseph ceased to be concerned for himself from the moment when, enlightened by an angel in that first dream, he fully accepted God's designs for him. Receiving Mary as his spouse he began to live for those who had been placed in his care. God had entrusted him with His family, and Joseph did not disappoint Him. God sought support in him, and he stood firm in every instance. (F. Suarez, Joseph of Nazareth, pp. 215-216) God counts on us for many great things. We cannot let Him down. Let us tell the Lord that we want to be unswervingly loyal to what He wants of us just as St. Joseph was in his life. We should examine ourselves as to how we can be more faithful in our personal conduct, our → apostolate and our profession work.

Our perseverance: Father, with unselfish Love St. Joseph cared for Your Son, born of the Virgin Mary. May we also serve You at Your altar with pure hearts. (Prayer over the Gifts)

(This) is a good time for us to reflect on the teaching of St. Thomas concerning Divine Vocation: To those whom God calls for His work, God provides the necessary preparation and graces, so that they will be the ideal instruments for that work. (St. Thomas, Summa Theologiae, 3, q 27, a 4, c) God's fidelity is made manifest in an infinite variety of ways to help us fulfill our commitments. St. Joseph responded immediately to the countless Graces which he received from God.

We ought often to reflect in our prayer on the certainty that the Lord will never let us down. He awaits our mature response, whether it be in youth, in adulthood, in old age, in good times or in bad.

It is possible that we may not feel God's presence at times, perhaps for a lengthy period. We may not feel drawn to God because we are full of ourselves. In this kind of situation fidelity to God requires interior recollection. Fidelity requires personal effort to overcome egoism and to begin again a life of prayer.

God wants us to be full of love, alert, brimming over with initiatives. The heart of the holy Patriarch was always alive with joy, even in the most difficult of trials. We ought to ensure that our journey to God is as new and original as love itself. Today we ask St. Joseph to give us a share in his youthful spirit. We ask this of him for the sake of those around us who might find thereby a road to Jesus." (From: In Conversation with God, by Francis Fernandez)

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother and Queen of all hearts, St. Joseph, St. Michael, and St. Paul, may we all grow in our devotion to the St. Joseph!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel
